UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

RICHARD GAMBORD,
Plaintiff,
v.
WESTSIDE GAS, INC., et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 17-cv-00262-BLF

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO SERVE VIA THE CALIFORNIA
SECRETARY OF STATE

[Re: ECF 18]

Plaintiff Richard Gambord (“Gambord”) sued Defendants Westside Gas, Inc. (“Westside Gas”) and Tornessa, Inc. d/b/a as Classic Vapor Dry Cleaners, alleging violations of the American Disabilities Act among other claims. First Am. Compl., ECF 16. Before the Court is Gambord’s motion to serve Westside Gas via service on the California Secretary of State because the agent for service of process cannot with reasonable diligence be located. Mot., ECF 18. The motion is unopposed. After reviewing the motion and the exhibits in support thereof, the Court grants the application for reasons stated below.

I. BACKGROUND

Gambord filed an initial complaint and summons was issued as to Westside Gas on January 19, 2017. Compl., ECF 1; Summons, ECF 5. Multiple attempts for service on Westside Gas by Gambord’s counsel and his staff ensued.

Christopher Joseph Peoples (“Peoples”) was identified to be the agent for Westside Gas, and the complaint was sent to County Process Services, Inc., a registered process server (“County Process”) on January 24, 2017, to effect service on Peoples. Best Decl. ¶ 2, ECF 18-1. Based on the Secretary of State’s website as of January 17, 2017, the entity and address to effect service on Westside Gas are “Christopher Joseph Peoples, at 645 Quail Run Road, Aptos, California.” Id. ¶¶

1 2, 4; Ex. A to Best Decl.

2 The effort of multiple professional process servers was unsuccessful throughout the period
3 of January 25, 2017 to March 29, 2017. Best Decl. ¶ 4. County Process conducted seventeen 4 attempts, at various times and days to serve Peoples. Id. No one answered the door or was 5 observed at the residence address. Id.

6 As of March 2, 2017, another inquiry was made with the California Secretary of State's 7 Office website on the agent for service of process for Westside Gas. Id. ¶ 5. It was discovered
8 that on February 26, 2017, Peoples, the CFO of Westside Gas, filed a Statement of Information 9 which now identifies the entity address as 15966 N. 80th Street in Scottsdale, Arizona. Ex. B to 10 Best Decl.

11 On March 2, 2017, County Process was directed to effect service on Peoples at this new 12 address. Best Decl. ¶ 6. From March 15, 2017 and March 30, 2017, County Process conducted 13 eleven attempts, at various dates and times, including a three hour and twenty five minute 14 stakeout. Id. No one answered the door and the building was found locked. Id.; Ex. C to Best 15 Decl.

16 On April 3, 2017, Gambord's counsel and his staff located two additional addresses
17 associated with Peoples, at 740 Rosecrans Street in San Diego, California, and 8229 N. 54th Street 18 in Paradise Valley, Arizona. Best Decl. ¶ 7. From April 3, 2017 to April 9, 2017, One Legal 19 Process Service ("One Legal"), one of the process servers, conducted seven attempts, at various 20 times and days to serve Peoples on behalf of Westside Gas at 740 Rosecrans Street in San Diego, 21 California. Id. Again, no one answered the door even though on three separate dates, multiple 22 vehicles were parked in the driveway. Id.; Ex. D to Best Decl.

23 As to the address at 8229 N. 54th Street in Paradise Valley, Arizona, One Legal conducted 24 five attempts to serve Peoples at that address from April 5, 2017 to April 17, 2017. Best Decl. ¶ 8.
25 No one answered the door and no one was seen at the residence. Id.

26 On March 21, 2017, Gambord's counsel and staff requested County Process to obtain a 27 change of address or boxholder information from the United States Post Office for the address of 28 645 Quail Run Road, Aptos, California. Best Decl. ¶ 10. The post office report, dated April 10,

1 2017, indicates a change of address with the new address to be 740 Rosecrans Street, San Diego,
2 California 92106. Id.; Ex. E to Best Decl.

3 On April 18, 2017, One Legal was directed to effect service on Peoples at 740 Rosecrans
4 Street in San Diego, California, again despite having attempted to effect service at that location
5 earlier that month unsuccessfully. Best Decl. ¶ 11. One Legal was also instructed to conduct 6 stakeouts at the residence. Id. On May 19, 2017, a three hour stakeout, from 6 a.m. to 9 a.m. was 7 conducted. Id. Two vehicles were observed at the residence, no movement was observed, and 8 there was no answer at the door. Id. From May 25, 2017 to May 30, 2017, four additional 9 attempts at various times were made. Id. On June 3, 2017, a three hour stakeout, from 12 p.m. to 10 3 p.m. was conducted. Id. Two vehicles were parked at the residence. During the stakeout, a 11 female was contacted at the residence, identifying herself as the wife of the agent for service, 12 Peoples. Id. She stated that he was on a business trip in Arizona, and that she was not affiliated 13 with the company. Id.; Ex. F to Best Decl.

14 II. LEGAL STANDARD

15 Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 4(h)(1)(A) allows service of process to corporations and other business 16 entities in the same ways permitted by Rule 4(e),¹ including all methods allowed by state law.
17 California law allows for five basic methods of service: 1) personal delivery to the party, see Cal.
18 Civ. Proc. Code § 415.10; 2) delivery to someone else at the party’s usual residence or place of 19 business with mailing after (known as “substitute service”), see id. § 415.20; 3) service by mail 20 with acknowledgment of receipt, see id. § 415.30; 4) service on persons outside the state by 21 certified or registered mail with a return receipt requested, see id. § 415.40; and 5) service by 22 publication, see id. § 415.50.

23 Under California law, a court may also order under certain circumstances that service be 26 ¹ Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 4(e) provides: “Serving an Individual Within a Judicial District of the United 27 States. Unless federal law provides otherwise, an individual—other than a minor, an incompetent 28 person, or a person whose waiver has been filed—may be served in a judicial district of the United States by:

(1) following state law for serving a summons in an action brought in courts of general jurisdiction in the state where the district court is located or where service is made”

1 made on a corporation by hand-delivery of process and the order authorizing such service to the 2 Secretary of State. Cal. Corp. Code § 1702(a). Cal. Corp. Code § 1702(a) provides:

3 If an agent for the purpose of service of process has resigned and has not been 4 replaced or if the agent designated cannot with reasonable diligence be found at 5 the address designated for personally delivering the process, or if no agent has 6 been designated, and it is shown by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court that 7 process against a domestic corporation cannot be served with reasonable diligence
8 upon the designated agent by hand in the manner provided in Section 415.10, 9 subdivision (a) of Section 415.20 or subdivision (a) of Section 415.30 of the Code
10 of Civil Procedure or upon the corporation in the manner provided in subdivision
11 (a), (b) or (c) of Section 416.10 or subdivision (a) of Section 416.20 of the Code 12 of Civil Procedure, the court may make an order that the service be made upon the 13 corporation by delivering by hand to the Secretary of State, or to any person 14 employed in the Secretary of State's office in the capacity of assistant or deputy, 15 one copy of the process for each defendant to be served, together with a copy of 16 the order authorizing such service. Service in this manner is deemed complete on 17 the 10th day after delivery of the process to the Secretary of State.

18 Cal. Corp. Code § 1702 (West)

19 Based on California Corporation Code § 1702(a), the plaintiff must further show by 20 affidavit that process against a domestic corporation cannot be served with reasonable diligence 21 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 416.10 (service to agent for service of process or 22 to the company's chief executive officers) and California Corporations Code § 1701 (hand-23 delivery of process to agent for service of process).

24 III. DISCUSSION

25 Gambord seeks to serve Westside Gas through the California Secretary of State. The 26 Court analyzes whether the conditions set forth in California Corporation Code § 1702(a) have 27 been satisfied, including the inability to effect service on the designated agent in the manner 28 provided in California Code of Civil Procedure §§ 415.10, 415.20(a), and 415.30(a); or upon the corporation in the manner provided in §§ 416.10 or 416.20(a).

With respect to § 415.10 (personal delivery), the Court notes that Gambord tried to serve Peoples, Westside Gas' agent and CFO, no less than 45 times over a period spanning January to June of 2017, at different addresses. Gambord's process servers have further conducted stakeouts, attempted personal service at different addresses, and followed various leads to determine the correct address for Peoples, who is the sole agent on record with the Secretary of State's business

1 registration for Westside Gas. Gambord thus has unsuccessfully tried to effect personal service on 2 Westside Gas and Peoples on numerous occasions pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure 3 § 415.10 despite reasonable diligence.

4 Turning to §§ 415.20 (substitute service) and 415.30 (mail service), based on the history of 5 unsuccessful attempts, Gambord has also shown that Peoples may be evading service and the 6 requisite addresses of Westside Gas and Peoples cannot be confirmed. Moreover, substituted
7 service (i.e., by leaving the summons and complaint with Peoples' wife, with whom he shares a 8 residence) would be ineffective as to Westside Gas because Peoples' personal residence is not 9 Westside Gas' business address. As such, service of process upon Westside Gas via Peoples 10 pursuant to California Codes of Civil Procedure §§ 415.20 and 415.30 cannot be reasonably 11 effected.

12 Based on the circumstances presented here, service on Westside Gas pursuant to California 13 Codes of Civil Procedure § 416.10 also cannot be reasonably effected. California Codes of Civil 14 Procedure § 416.10 permits service of the summons on an agent for service of process or on heads 15 of the corporation, vice president, a secretary or assistant secretary, a treasurer or assistant 16 treasurer, a controller or chief financial officer, a general manager. As noted above, Gambord has 17 not been able to locate and serve Peoples despite reasonable diligence. No other heads or officers 18 of the Westside Gas have been identified despite Gambord's investigation. Accordingly, service 19 pursuant to § 416.10 would be similarly unavailing. California Codes of Civil Procedure § 416.20 20 provides a means to serve a summons on a corporation that has forfeited its charter, or right to do 21 business, or has dissolved and thus is not applicable here.

22 Lastly, a motion for an order to serve a corporation pursuant to California Corporations 23 Code § 1702(a) further requires an affidavit stating that the corporation cannot be served with 24 reasonable diligence. Gambord has fulfilled this requirement by submitting a declaration along 25 with the instant motion, showing that he has been reasonably diligent in trying to give Westside 26 Gas actual notice of the pendency of the action.

27 Considering Gambord's inability to serve Westside Gas personally through its agent for 28 service of process and other means set forth in California Corporation Code § 1702(a), Gambord
