STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER TO EXTEND TIME FOR PARTIES TO EXCHANGE PROPOSED
 CLAIM TERMS FOR CONSTRUCTION
 UNDER PATENT L.R. 4-1(a)

Honorable Edward J. Davila

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiffs ARRIS Solutions, Inc. and ARRIS Enterprises LLC (collectively, “ARRIS” or
2 “Plaintiffs”) and Defendants Sony Interactive Entertainment LLC, Sony Interactive Entertainment
3 America LLC, Sony Interactive Entertainment, Inc., Sony Electronics Inc., Sony Corporation of
4 America, and Sony Mobile Communications (USA), Inc. (collectively, “Sony” or “Defendants”)
5 hereby stipulate:

6 RECITALS

7 1. On June 26, 2017, the Court entered a Scheduling Order, setting August 29, 2017 as 8 the deadline for Sony’s Invalidation Contentions and accompanying document production under
9 Patent L.R. 3-3 and 3-4. (Dkt. No. 46 at 2.)

10 2. On August 24, 2017, the Court granted the parties’ stipulated extension of that
11 deadline to September 12, 2017. (Dkt. No. 61 at 4.)

12 3. The Court’s Scheduling Order also set September 12, 2017 as the deadline for the 13 parties to exchange proposed claim terms for construction pursuant to Patent L.R. 4-1(a). (Dkt. No.
14 46 at 2.)

15 4. Accordingly, the deadline for Sony’s Invalidation Contentions and accompanying 16 document production under Patent L.R. 3-3 and 3-4 is now the same day as the deadline for the 17 parties to exchange proposed claim terms for construction pursuant to Patent L.R. 4-1(a).

18 5. In view of the foregoing, the parties believe a one-week extension for the Patent L.R.
19 4-1(a) exchange, up through and including September 19, 2017, will allow the parties to more
20 efficiently identify proposed claim terms for construction and possibly reduce the number of terms
21 for construction, easing the burden on the parties and the Court.

22 6. This requested extension will not have any other impact on the case schedule.
