ITS MOTION FOR SUMMARY
JUDGMENT; SETTING BRIEFING

CONTINUING TRIAL SETTING

Re: Dkt. No. 283

On June 25, 2020, Defendant filed a motion for leave to file excess pages for its motion for summary judgment. Dkt. 283. After finding good cause and after having considered Plaintiff's objection, the Court GRANTS Defendant's request for leave to file 5 excess pages. Plaintiff may also file 5 excess pages in his opening brief, i.e., his combined motion for summary judgment/his opposition.

The Court also directs the Parties to the undersigned's standing order, which instructs parties on this Court's cross motion requirement. See Judge Edward J. Davila Standing Order for Civil Cases V.C. Both Plaintiff and Defendant have indicated an intent to file summary judgment motions. The Parties must comply with this Court's standing order. However, the Court finds it would be more effective and provide Plaintiff with more time if Defendant filed the opening brief instead of Plaintiff. Accordingly, the Court orders as follows:

4. By August 6, 2020, Plaintiff must file his reply brief which shall not exceed 15 pages in length.
