UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

JANE DOE 1, ET AL.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
KIRSTJEN NIELSEN, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No.18-cv-02349-BLF (VKD)
ORDER RE SCHEDULE FOR JURISDICTIONAL DISCOVERY
Re: Dkt. No. 105

On September 7, 2018, the Court granted plaintiffs’ request to conduct jurisdictional discovery of the nature of the agency action at issue. Dkt. No. 102. The Court set a schedule for conducting jurisdictional discovery based on plaintiffs’ proposal, which defendants did not oppose. Id.

Defendants have not complied with the discovery schedule, and now seek an extension of the deadlines originally set by the Court for their compliance. Dkt. No. 105. Plaintiffs oppose an extension. Dkt. No. 106. The Court held a hearing on defendants’ motion on November 6, 2018. Dkt. No. 131.

At the hearing, defendants represented that they have not produced any responsive documents to date, but they are prepared to begin producing documents as soon as the Court enters a protective order. Defendants further represented that the documents that remain to be collected and reviewed number in the “low thousands” of pages. Dkt. No. 131.

For the reasons explained on the record at the hearing, the Court orders defendants to begin producing documents to plaintiffs immediately and to continue production on a rolling basis. Defendants shall endeavor to prioritize the production of documents per plaintiffs’ request following further discussion between counsel. Defendants shall complete the production of responsive documents by December 7, 2018. The Court expects that the attorneys of record in this action will actively manage the collection, review, and production of all responsive documents to meet the December 7, 2018 deadline. The Court extends the deadline for completion of jurisdictional discovery accordingly to January 7, 2019.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
