UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

PATRICK CALHOUN, et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
GOOGLE LLC,
Defendant.

Case No. 20-cv-05146-LHK (SVK)

ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART DEFENDANT'S
MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Re: Dkt. No. 350

The Court has evaluated the Parties' joint submission and exhibits regarding Plaintiffs' subpoena to non-party Ernst & Young ("E&Y"), the relevant Rules of Civil Procedure and the discovery history over which this Court has presided. The Court determines that this matter may be resolved without oral argument. Civil L.R. 7-1(b). Accordingly, the Court ORDERS as follows as to each of the requests for production set forth in Dkt. 352-4:

Request No. 1: Motion overruled.

Request No. 2: Motion overruled.

Request No. 3: Motion granted in part. The request is limited to E&Y documents sufficient to identify Google's average annual revenue per user in the relevant time period.

Request No. 4: Request is overbroad and not proportional to the needs of the case. Motion granted.

Request No. 5: Motion granted in part. The request is limited to E&Y policies, practices, guidelines and manuals from the relevant time period relating to the stated subject matter.

Request No. 6: Request is overbroad and not proportional to the needs of the case. Motion granted.

Request No. 7: Request is overbroad and not proportional to the needs of the case. Motion granted.

Request No. 8: Request is overbroad and not proportional to the needs of the case. Motion granted.

Request No. 9: Motion is granted in part. The request is limited to identification, assessment or evaluation of the stated subject matter by E&Y during the relevant time period.

Request No. 10: Request is overbroad and irrelevant and as such is not proportional to the needs of the case. Motion granted.

The Court further ORDERS E&Y to produce responsive documents in accordance with the Order above by November 30, 2021.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: November 16, 2021
