IN RE LINKEDIN ERISA LITIGATION

Case No. 5:20-cv-05704-EJD

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT; GRANTING IN PART REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS’ FEES, COSTS, AND SERVICE AWARDS

Re: ECF No. 148

Plaintiffs Douglas G. Bailey, Jason J. Hayes, and Marianne Robinson (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) filed this putative class action individually and as participants of the LinkedIn Corporation 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust (“the Plan”) against Defendants LinkedIn Corporation (“LinkedIn”), LinkedIn Corporation’s Board of Directors (“the Board”), and LinkedIn Corporation’s 401(k) Committee (“the Committee”) asserting breach of their fiduciary duties under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (“ERISA”), 29 U.S.C. § 1001, et seq., and related breaches of applicable law beginning on or after August 14, 2014 until July 1, 2020 (“the Class Period”). Second Am. Compl. (“SAC”), ECF No. 99.

The Court previously granted Plaintiffs’ motion for preliminary approval of the Class Action Settlement on July 13, 2023. Order Granting Mot. for prelim. Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Prelim. Approval Order”), ECF No. 147. As directed by the Court’s Preliminary Approval Order, on October 2, 2023, Plaintiffs filed their unopposed motion for final settlement approval and for attorneys’ fees, costs, and service awards. Pls.’ Notice of And Unopposed Mot. for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement Awards of Att’ys’ Fees, Expenses, and Class Contribution Awards;

Case No.: 5:20-cv-05704-EJD

ORDER GRANTING MOT. FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT;
GRANTING IN PART REQUEST FOR ATT’YS’ FEES, COSTS, & SERV. AWARDS

1 Mem. of P. & A. ISO (“Mot.”), ECF No. 148. The Court heard arguments from the parties on 2 December 13, 2023. No objectors appeared.

3 Having considered the motion briefing, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the 4 arguments of counsel, and the other matters on file in this action, the Court GRANTS the motion for 5 final approval and GRANTS IN PART the request for attorneys’ fees, costs, and service awards.
6 The Court finds the settlement fair, adequate, and reasonable. The provisional appointments of the 7 class representatives and class counsel are confirmed. The Court ORDERS that class counsel shall 8 be paid $2,250,000 in attorneys’ fees and $119,386.02 in litigation costs, and Named Plaintiffs 9 Bailey, Hayes, and Robinson shall each be paid a $6,500 service award.

10 I. BACKGROUND

11 A. Procedural History

12 Plaintiffs—former employees of LinkedIn—filed the putative class action complaint on 13 August 14, 2020 against Defendants initially alleging two causes of action for breaches of fiduciary 14 duties of loyalty and prudence and for failure to adequately monitor other fiduciaries from on or after 15 August 14, 2014 until July 1, 2020 (“the Class Period”). See generally Compl., ECF No. 1. The 16 Plan at issue is a participant-directed 401(k) plan which permits participants to direct the investment 17 of their contributions into various investment options the Plan offered, including various mutual 18 funds, a collective investment trust, and a self-directed brokerage account. Id. ¶ 20; SAC ¶ 19.
19 From August 14, 2014 to the present, Fidelity Management Trust Company (“Fidelity Trust”) served 20 as the Plan trustee for Plan assets. Compl. ¶¶ 23, 56; SAC ¶ 22.

21 In the initial complaint, Plaintiffs alleged that LinkedIn violated its fiduciary duties by: (1) 22 offering as investment options certain target date funds in the Fidelity Freedom Fund suite from 23 Fidelity Management & Research Company, id. ¶¶ 25–41, and acting imprudently by selecting and 24 retaining the actively managed Freedom Funds (“the Active Suite”), which are riskier and charge 25 higher fees in comparison to passively managed index funds, id.; (2) by offering the actively 26 managed American Funds AMCAP Fund Class R4 and R6 (“the AMCAP Fund”), which

1 significantly underperformed its benchmark, the S&P 500 Index, and did not provide returns to 2 justify its expense ratio such that the inclusion of the AMCAP Fund was imprudent, id. ¶¶ 42–45; 3 and (3) by failing to ensure that the Plan’s investment options charged only reasonable investment 4 management fees; instead, the Plan paid management fees that were higher than average compared 5 to other similarly sized 401(k) plans, id. ¶¶ 46–49.

6 Defendants moved to dismiss the complaint, asserting that Plaintiffs had not adequately 7 alleged Article III standing and for failure to state a claim. ECF No. 44. The Court granted in part 8 and denied in part Defendants’ motion, finding that: (1) Plaintiffs lacked standing because they 9 failed to plead facts demonstrating that Plaintiffs’ suffered a concrete injury—i.e., that Bailey, 10 Hayes, and Robinson personally invested in the Freedom Active Suite or the AMCAP Fund; and (2) 11 dismissed Plaintiffs’ breach of prudence claim to the extent it is premised on the inclusion and 12 retention of the AMCAP Fund but that Plaintiffs adequately pled a claim for breaches of the duties 13 of prudence and loyalty based on the Freedom Fidelity Active Suite allegations. ECF No. 96 (“MTD 14 Order”). The Court granted leave to amend, and shortly thereafter Plaintiffs filed the operative 15 complaint for: (1) breach of their fiduciary duties under the Employee Retirement Income Security 16 Act (“ERISA”), 29 U.S.C. § 1001, et seq., (2) failure to monitor fiduciaries and co-fiduciary 17 breaches under ERISA; and, in the alternative, (3) knowing breach of trust. See generally SAC. In 18 the SAC, Plaintiffs added specific allegations that Bailey, Hayes, and Robinson maintained an 19 investment through the Plan in the Fidelity Freedom 2010 Fund, the 2050 Fund, and the 2030 Fund, 20 respectively, during the Class Period. SAC ¶¶ 9–11. Plaintiffs also removed allegations regarding 21 the AMCAP Fund. See ECF No. 99-1.

22 Defendants moved to dismiss the SAC and a hearing was set for June 9, 2022. ECF No. 107.
23 Before the hearing, Plaintiffs moved to certify the class, which was scheduled to be heard August 11, 24 2022. ECF No. 121. On May 27, 2022, the Court took the motion to dismiss under submission.
25 However, the Court never ruled on either motion; the following month, the Parties moved to stay the 26 proceedings pending mediation, which the Court granted. ECF Nos. 124, 125. On September 23, 1 2022, the parties engaged in mediation with the assistance of an experienced mediator Robert A.

2 Meyer, Esquire of JAMS. The Parties reached an agreement in principle to resolve the action on 3 October 12, 2022, prior to class certification.

4 The “Settlement Class” is defined as:

5 All participants and beneficiaries of the Plan, at any time during the 6 Class Period (August 14, 2014, through July 1, 2020), including any 7 beneficiary of a deceased person who was a participant in the Plan at 8 any time during the Class Period, and any Alternate Payees, in the 9 case of a person subject to a Qualified Domestic Relations Order 10 (“QDRO”) who was a participant in the Plan at any time during the 11 Class Period. The Class shall exclude all Defendants, including the 12 individual members of the Board of Directors of LinkedIn 13 Corporation, and the LinkedIn Corporation 401(k) Committee, and 14 their beneficiaries, during the Class Period.

15 Mot. 2; see Decl. of Kolin C. Tang ISO Pls.’ Unopposed Mot. for Prelim. Approval of Class
16 Action Settlement and Approval of Class Notice (“Tang Decl.”), ECF No. 139-2, Ex. 1
17 (“Settlement Agreement”) § 1.49. In its Preliminary Approval Order, the Court conditionally 18 certified the Settlement Class and provisionally appointed Bailey, Hayes, and Robinson as Class 19 Representatives for the Settlement Class, Strategic Claims Services (“SCS”) as the Settlement 20 Administrator, and Miller Shah LLP (“Miller Shah”) and Capozzi Adler, P.C. (“Capozzi Adler”) as 21 Class Counsel for the Settlement Class. Prelim. Approval Order at 3, 7.

22 B. Terms of the Settlement Agreement

23 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendants will pay a gross settlement amount 24 of $6,750,000 into a common, interest-bearing Qualified Settlement Fund to be allocated on a pro 25 rata basis to Current Participants, Former Participants, Beneficiaries, and Alternate Payees of the 26 Plan pursuant to the Plan of Allocation, without admitting liability.<sup>1</sup> Settlement Agreement §§ 1.27, 27 4.5, 5.3, 10.1–10.2; Tang Decl., Ex. B (“Plan of Allocation”). This amount includes attorneys’ fees 28 and costs, the cost of class notice, the cost of settlement administration, the cost of the Independent

1 Fiduciary subject to a $25,000 cap, taxes due on the fund, and the class representatives' case 2 contribution awards. Settlement Agreement §§ 1.27, 1.4, 4.5, 5.1.1–5.1.4, 6.1, 8.1.

3 1. Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Case Contribution Awards

4 Under the Settlement Agreement, the Parties agreed that Class Counsel will seek to recover 5 no more than one-third of the gross settlement amount in attorneys' fees and case contribution 6 awards not to exceed $12,500 per Class Representative as an incentive award in exchange for a 7 general release of all claims against Defendants. Settlement Agreement § 6.1. The Settlement 8 Agreement does not limit the amount of litigation costs Class Counsel may seek to recover.

9 2. Class Relief

10 The Settlement Agreement solely provides monetary relief via a non-reversionary common 11 fund; it does not provide injunctive relief. Nor is there a cy pres recipient. After the payments have 12 been issued to the Class members, any amount remaining in the Settlement Fund from uncashed 13 checks after 180 days will be distributed back to the Settlement Fund to be utilized for the benefit of 14 the Plan. See Plan of Allocation.

15 3. Independent Fiduciary

16 Section 11 of the Settlement Agreement provides that, prior to the Final Fairness Hearing, 17 an Independent Fiduciary must approve an authorize the settlement. Settlement Agreement § 11.4.
18 "If the Independent Fiduciary disapproves or otherwise does not authorize the Settlement or 19 refuses to execute the release on behalf of the LinkedIn Plan, then the Settling Parties may 20 mutually agree to modify the terms of this Settlement Agreement as necessary to facilitate 21 approval by the Independent Fiduciary." Id.

22 C. Class Notice and Claims Administration

23 The Settlement Agreement is being administered by SCS, which has administered more than 24 525 class actions since its inception in 1999. Decl. of Cornelia Vieira Concerning the Mailing of 25 Settlement Notice and Former Participant Claim Form ("Vieira Decl.") ¶ 1, ECF No. 148-2.
26 Following the Court's preliminary approval and conditional certification of the settlement, the Class

1 Administer received 17,353 entries identified as Class Members with a positive balance in the Plan
2 during the Class Period, or as Beneficiaries, or Alternate Payees from Defendants. Id. ¶ 4.

3 SCS disseminated the Settlement Notice via electronic and/or first-class mail to Class 4 Members with an active account and the Former Participant Claim Form to each Class Member 5 without an active account: a total of 15,727 Class Members for whom a valid email address existed
6 received notice via email and the remaining 1,659 Class Members were sent notice via first-class 7 mail. Suppl. Decl. of Cornelia Vieira Concerning the Mailing of the Settlement Notice and Former 8 Participant Claim Form (“Vieira Supp. Decl.”) ¶ 3, ECF No. 151-2.

9 Specifically, of the 17,353 entries, SCS identified 12,676 as active accounts and 4,677 as 10 non-active accounts. Id. Former Participants, Beneficiaries, and Alternate Payees who no longer 11 have active accounts must submit a Former Participant Claim Form by November 10, 2023 to be 12 eligible to receive Settlement Funds. Mot. 3. Class Members with active accounts received only the 13 notice, since they are currently participants in the Plan and therefore not required to submit a claim 14 form. Vieira Supp. Decl. ¶ 3. With respect to these Class Members with active accounts, 11,385
15 received email notice and 1,291 received notice via mail. Vieira Decl. ¶ 4. With respect to Class 16 Members who do not have active accounts, 4,342 received notice and the claim form via email and 17 the remaining 335 non-active individuals received the notice and claim form via first-class mail. Id.
18 A total of 17,357 active and non-active class members received notice by August 28, 2023. Vieira 19 Supp. Decl. ¶ 3.

20 Of the 4,677 non-active Class Members, 54 emailed and/or mailed notice and claim forms 21 were returned as undeliverable. Id. ¶ 4. SCS was able to procure an updated mailing address and 22 mail or re-mail notices and claim forms to 40 of these individuals. Id. of the active Class Members, 23 44 of the emailed and/or mailed notices were returned as undeliverable. Id. ¶ 5. SCS was able to 24 procure an updated mailing address and mail or re-mail notices to 34 of these individuals. Id.

25 SCS also established a settlement website at www.strategicclaims.net/LinkedIn401K, which 26 contains the current status of the case and important dates, as well as the settlement notice—which

2 Settlement Agreement with exhibits, the SAC, and the toll-free number (866-274-4004) operated by 3 SCS to which Class Members can direct questions about the settlement. Vieira Decl. ¶¶ 5–6.

4 Non-active Class members were given until November 10, 2023, to submit claim forms. Id.
5 ¶ 12. As of November 9, SCS had reportedly received 813 Former Participant Claim Forms, in 6 addition to the 12,676 Class Members with active accounts who will automatically receive the 7 benefit of the settlement. Vieira Supp. Decl. ¶ 9.

8 All Class Members had until October 17, 2023 to postmark objections to the settlement.
9 Vieira Decl. ¶ 11. To date, no Class Members objected to the settlement. Vieira Supp. Decl. ¶ 8; 10 see Mot. at 5.

11 II. FINAL APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT

12 A. Legal Standard

13 A court may approve a proposed class action settlement of a certified class only “after a 14 hearing and on finding that it is fair, reasonable, and adequate,” and that it meets the requirements 15 for class certification. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). In reviewing the proposed settlement, a court need 16 not address whether the settlement is ideal or the best outcome, but only whether the settlement is 17 fair, free of collusion, and consistent with plaintiff’s fiduciary obligations to the class. See Hanlon v.
18 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d at 1027. The Hanlon court identified the following factors relevant to 19 assessing a settlement proposal: (1) the strength of the plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, 20 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status 21 throughout the trial; (4) the amount offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and 22 the stage of the proceeding; (6) the experience and views of counsel; (7) the presence of a 23 government participant; and (8) the reaction of class members to the proposed settlement. Id. at 24 1026 (citation omitted); see also Churchill Vill., L.L.C. v. Gen. Elec., 361 F.3d 566, 575 (9th Cir.
25 2004).

26 Furthermore, class settlements reached prior to formal class certification require a

1 “heightened fairness inquiry.” In re Apple Inc. Device Performance Litig., 50 F.4th 769, 783 (9th 2 Cir. 2022) (quoting Roes, I-2 v. SFBSC Mgmt., LLC, 944 F.3d 1035, 1049 (9th Cir. 2019)). When 3 reviewing such a pre-certification settlement, the district court must not only explore the Churchill 4 factors but also “look[] for and scrutinize[] any subtle signs that class counsel have allowed pursuit
5 of their own self-interests . . . to infect the negotiations.” Roes, 944 F.3d at 1043 (internal quotation 6 marks omitted).

7 B. Discussion<sup>2</sup>

8 1. The Settlement Class Meets the Prerequisites for Certification.

9 As the Court found in its order granting preliminary approval and conditional certification of 10 the settlement class herein, the prerequisites of Rule 23 have been satisfied for purposes of 11 certification of the Settlement Class. To restate the Court’s findings:

- 12 • Numerosity: Pursuant to Rule 23(a)(1), the Settlement Class of over 17,000 13 individuals is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.
- 14 • Commonality: Rule 23(a)(2) commonality requires “questions of fact or law common 15 to the class.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026. Here, the interests of the Class 16 Representatives and the nature of the alleged claims are consistent with those of the 17 Settlement Class Members, and there appear to be no conflicts between or among the 18 Class Representatives and the Settlement Class.
- 19 • Typicality: Rule 23(a)(3) requires that Plaintiffs show that “the claims or defenses of 20 the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class.” Here, 21 Plaintiffs allege that Defendants breached their fiduciary duties as to every Plan 22 participant and that “they have all been injured in the same way,” making Plaintiffs’ 23 claims typical of class members. Foster v. Adams & Assocs., Inc., No. 18-CV-02723-

24
25 <sup>2</sup> The Court notes that the Parties provided the required notice to federal and state attorneys 26 general under the Class Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”), 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b). Decl. of Laurie
27 Rubinow ISO Mot. for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement and Awards of Att’ys’ Fees, 28 Expenses, and Case Contribution Awards (“Rubinow Decl.”) ¶ 22, ECF No. 148-1. Notice occurred more than 90 days before the date of this order, as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1715(d).

1 JSC, 2019 WL 4305538, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 11, 2019).

- 2 • Adequacy: With respect to Rule 23(a)(4), the Class Representatives and Class 3 Counsel have fairly and adequately represented the interests of the Class. Class 4 Counsel have prosecuted the action vigorously on behalf of the class; they have 5 identified and investigated potential claims and are experienced in handling ERISA 6 class actions. Furthermore, no conflicts of interest appear as between Plaintiffs and 7 the members of the Settlement Class.
- 8 • Finally, the Settlement Class further satisfies Rule 23(b)(1). “Rule 23(b)(1)(A) 9 prevents the prosecution of separate actions that would create the risk of inconsistent 10 or varying adjudications . . . that would establish incompatible standards of conduct 11 for the party opposing the class.” Moyle v. Liberty Mut. Ret. Ben. Plan, 823 F.3d 948, 12 965 (9th Cir. 2016), as amended on denial of reh’g and reh’g en banc (Aug. 18, 2016) 13 (quotations omitted). “Certification under Rule 23(b)(1) is particularly appropriate in 14 cases involving ERISA fiduciaries who must apply uniform standards to a large 15 number of beneficiaries.” Foster v. Adams & Assocs., Inc., No. 18-CV-02723-JSC, 16 2019 WL 4305538, at *7 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 11, 2019) (citation omitted). Separate, 17 individual prosecutions of Plaintiffs’ ERISA action would create a risk inconsistent or 18 varying adjudications as to individual Settlement Class Members and, as a practical 19 matter, would be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the 20 individual adjudications, or substantially impair or impede the ability of such persons 21 to protect their interests.

22 See Prelim. Approval Order. ¶¶ 2(a)–(f).

23 2. Adequate Notice Was Provided.

24 A court must “direct notice [of a proposed class settlement] in a reasonable manner to all 25 class members who would be bound by the proposal.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1). The notice must 26 be “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the 1 pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” In re Apple

2 Device Performance, 50 F.4th at 779. However, “neither Rule 23 nor the Due Process Clause 3 requires actual notice to each individual class member.” Briseno v. ConAgra Foods, Inc., 844 4 F.3d 1121, 1128 (9th Cir. 2017).

5 On July 13, 2023, the Court approved the Notice Plan subject to certain revisions described 6 at the preliminary approval hearing on June 29, 2023. See ECF Nos. 144, 145. At the further 7 hearing on July 13, 2023, the Court approved the revised notice and found the parties’ proposed 8 notice procedures provided the best notice practicable and reasonably calculated to apprise Class 9 members of the settlement and their rights to object or exclude themselves. ECF Nos. 146, 147; 10 Prelim. Approval Order 6–7.

11 Pursuant to those procedures, SCS provided direct notice to 17,357 Class Members. Vieira 12 Supp. Decl. ¶ 3. The most recently filed declaration indicates that approximately 24 Class Members 13 with active and non-active accounts did not receive notice and/or a claim form because the 14 Settlement Administrator lacked a valid email address or home address for these individuals. See 15 Vieira Supp. Decl. ¶¶ 4–5. Only 10 Class Members with non-active accounts did not receive a 16 notice and claim form because they were returned as undeliverable. Despite SCS’s efforts, it was 17 unable to obtain an updated mailing addresses from the U.S. Postal Service or locate their updated 18 information by “skip-tracing.” Id. ¶ 4. In sum, SCS was able to provide notice to more than 99% of 19 the class.

20 Based upon the foregoing, the Court finds that the Settlement Class has been provided 21 adequate notice.

22 3. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate.

23 “Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e) requires the district court to determine whether a proposed 24 settlement is fundamentally fair, adequate, and reasonable.” Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 25 959 (9th Cir. 2003). To determine whether a settlement satisfies Rule 23(e), a court must consider 26 the following “Hanlon” factors: “the strength of plaintiffs’ case; the risk, expense, complexity, and 27

1 likely duration of further litigation; the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial; 2 the amount offered in settlement; the extent of discovery completed, and the stage of the 3 proceedings; the experience and views of counsel; the presence of a governmental participant; and 4 the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” Id. (quotations and citation 5 omitted). As the Court previously found in its Preliminary Approval Order, the Hanlon factors 6 indicate the settlement here is fair and reasonable and treats class members equitably relative to 7 one another. See Prelim. Approval Order. 3–4.

8 “The first and second [Hanlon] factors require the Court to consider the strength of the 9 Plaintiffs’ case on the merits balanced against the amount offered in the settlement and the risks of 10 further litigation.” Foster, 2022 WL 425559, at *4 (quotations and citation omitted). Although 11 Plaintiffs believe there is a strong legal and factual basis for their claims, they recognize the 12 inherent risks of continued litigation, particularly for complex ERISA claims. Mot. 7. Indeed, 13 “ERISA is an enormously complex statute, and many ERISA matters also involve facts that are 14 exceedingly complicated.” Conkright v. Frommert, 559 U.S. 506, 509 (2010) (quotation marks 15 omitted). At the time the Parties reached settlement, motions to dismiss and certify the class were 16 pending which required substantial continued litigation. Had plaintiffs prevailed, the Parties likely 17 would have filed additional dispositive, expert exclusion, and other pretrial motions, culminating 18 with a trial and potential appeal. Mot. 8. Moreover, the third factor looks to the risk of 19 maintaining the class certification if litigation were to proceed. Since the Parties settled prior to a 20 certification ruling, there was a risk that a class would not be certified. Even if Plaintiffs prevailed 21 on their certification motion, the Court cannot conclude that there would be no risk of 22 decertification. Settlement avoids these risks to the benefit of the Class. Thus, the first, second, 23 and third Hanlon factors favor final approval.

24 Fourth, the amount offered in settlement is within the range of reasonableness. “[I]t is 25 well-settled law that a proposed settlement may be acceptable even though it amounts to only a 26 fraction of the potential recovery that might be available to the class members at trial.” Nat’l

28 ORDER GRANTING MOT. FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT;
GRANTING IN PART REQUEST FOR ATT’YS’ FEES, COSTS, & SERV. AWARDS

1 Rural Telecommunications Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 527 (C.D. Cal. 2004); see
2 Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n of City & Cnty. of S.F., 688 F.2d 615, 628 (9th Cir.
3 1982). According to Plaintiff's calculations, the settlement provides monetary relief of 4 approximately 68%, of the midpoint, or $9,941,637.25, of the most likely range of losses from 5 $3,943,017 million to $15,940,213 million. Mot. 9. The Court agrees with Plaintiffs that this 6 recovery is in a range consistent with the median settlement recovery in class actions.

7 The fifth and sixth factors—the extent of discovery and the stage of the proceedings—also 8 favors final approval. “[E]xtensive review of discovery materials indicates [Class Counsel] had 9 sufficient information to make an informed decision about the Settlement . . . . [which] favors 10 approving the Settlement.” In re: Volkswagen "Clean Diesel" Mktg., Sales Pracs., & Prod. Liab.
11 Litig., No. MDL 2672 CRB (JSC), 2016 WL 6248426, at *14 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 25, 2016). Here, 12 Plaintiffs have taken extensive discovery sufficient to enable counsel to evaluate the strength of 13 their claims and the risks of continued litigation. Rubinow Decl. ¶ 3. For example, Plaintiffs 14 received and reviewed thousands of pages of documents, deposed fact witnesses, and disclosed 15 expert reports. Id.; Mot. 9–10. At this stage in the litigation, Defendants’ motion to dismiss the 16 SAC was briefed and pending the Court’s ruling, and Plaintiff’s had recently filed a class 17 certification motion before settlement was reached. Plaintiffs aver that the Parties had exchanged 18 sufficient information at this juncture and conducted an independent analysis to determine their 19 likelihood of success on their claims. Rubinow Decl. ¶ 3. Thus, the Court concludes that the 20 settlement was reached “following sufficient discovery and genuine arms-length negotiation.”
21 DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. at 528.

22 Next, the experience and views of counsel also favors granting final approval. Class 23 Counsel has significant experience in class action litigation generally and, in particular, ERISA 24 breach of fiduciary duty litigation. Mot. 10. This Circuit recognizes that “[p]arties represented by 25 competent counsel are better positioned than courts to produce a settlement that fairly reflects each 26 party’s expected outcome in litigation.” Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 967 (9th 27

1 Cir. 2009) (citation omitted). Giving due “consideration to the opinion of competent counsel,” 2 and in consideration of the foregoing, the Court agrees with Class Counsel’s endorsement that the 3 settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Ching v. Siemens Indus., Inc., No. 11-cv-04838-MEJ, 4 2014 WL 2926210, at *5 (N.D. Cal. June 27, 2014) (quotations and citation omitted).

5 Finally, the reaction of Class Members has been overwhelmingly positive. The Court 6 received no objections to the settlement, and this “absence of a negative reaction” certainly weighs 7 in favor of approval. Chun-Hoon v. McKee Foods Corp., 716 F. Supp. 2d 848, 852 (N.D. Cal.
8 2010).

9 Furthermore, in its Preliminary Approval Order, the Court approved the proposed Plan of 10 Allocation. Distribution plans are governed by the same legal standards applied to final 11 approval of settlement. Fleming v. Impax Lab ’ys Inc., No. 16-CV-06557-HSG, 2021 WL 12 5447008, at *11 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 22, 2021). Pursuant to Plaintiffs’ Allocation Plan, the amount 13 paid to each Class Member will be determined based on the average account balance of each Class 14 Member’s account during the relevant period. Mot. 3. Specifically, each Class Member will 15 receive a “score” based on their account balance and their length of their investment to 16 approximate the damage suffered. Plan of Allocation § 1.5. Because the fund is distributed on 17 pro rata basis, the Court finds the Plan of Allocation to be fair and reasonable and to treat class 18 members equitably.

19 Lastly, Defendants retained an Independent Fiduciary, Gallagher Fiduciary Advisors, LLC, 20 to approve and authorize the Settlement on behalf of the Plan pursuant to Department of Labor 21 Regulations pertaining to the release of litigation claims on behalf of a qualified retirement plan.
22 See Settlement Agreement § 2.1; Mot. 5–6. As reflected in the report, the Independent Fiduciary 23 concluded that the Settlement and related applications are fair, reasonable, and adequate. See 24 Rubinow Supp. Decl. Ex. 1.

25 1. The Bluetooth Factors Are Satisfied.

26 A settlement agreement negotiated before the class has been certified requires a “higher 27

1 level of scrutiny” to ensure it is free from “collusion or other conflicts of interest.” Roes, 1-2, 944 2 F.3d at 1048. Often referred to as the “Bluetooth factors,” the Court must determine whether the 3 settlement was a result of good faith, arms-length negotiations lacking any explicit collusion or 4 “subtle signs” of collusion. In re Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 947. These subtle signs of collusion 5 include:

- 6 (1) when counsel receive a disproportionate distribution of the 7 settlement; (2) when the parties negotiate a clear sailing arrangement 8 (i.e., an arrangement where defendant will not object to a certain fee request by class counsel); and (3) when the parties create a reverter that returns unclaimed [funds] to the defendant.

9 Id. at 1049 (quotations and citations omitted).

10 None of these warning signs are present here. First, the Settlement Agreement provides 11 that Class Counsel shall not seek more than 30% of the Qualified Settlement Fund to ensure Class 12 Counsel does not seek a disproportionate share of the fund. See Settlement Agreement § 6.1.
13 Second, the Settlement Agreement does not include a free sailing agreement. Although 14 Defendants have not objected to Plaintiff’s requested fee award, nothing in the Settlement 15 Agreement prevents Defendants from doing so. Finally, the fund is non-reversionary.

16 2. Certification Is Granted and the Settlement Is Approved.

17 After reviewing all of the required factors, the Court finds the Settlement Agreement to be 18 fair, reasonable, and adequate, and certification of the Settlement Class to be proper.

19 III. ATTORNEYS’ FEES, COSTS, AND CLASS REPRESENTATIVE AWARDS

20 Attorneys’ fees and costs may be awarded in a certified class action under Federal Rule of 21 Civil Procedure 23(h). Such fees must be found “fair, reasonable, and adequate” in order to be 22 approved. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e); Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 963 (9th Cir. 2003). To “avoid 23 abdicating its responsibility to review the agreement for the protection of the class, a district court 24 must carefully assess the reasonableness of a fee amount spelled out in a class action settlement 25 agreement.” Id. at 963. “[T]he members of the class retain an interest in assuring that the fees to be 26 paid class counsel are not unreasonably high,” since unreasonably high fees are a likely indicator 27 that the class has obtained less monetary or injunctive relief than they might otherwise. Id. at 964.

28 Case No.: 5:20-cv-05704-EJD

ORDER GRANTING MOT. FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT;
GRANTING IN PART REQUEST FOR ATT’YS’ FEES, COSTS, & SERV. AWARDS

1                   A. Attorneys’ Fees

2                   The Court analyzes an attorneys’ fee request based on either the “lodestar” method or a 3 percentage of the total settlement fund made available to the class, including costs, fees, and 4 injunctive relief. Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1047 (9th Cir. 2002). The Ninth 5 Circuit encourages courts to use another method as a cross-check in order to avoid a “mechanical 6 or formulaic approach that results in an unreasonable reward.” In re Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 944– 7 45 (citing Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1050–51).

8                   1. Percentage-of-the-Fund

9                   Class counsel requests an attorneys’ fee award of one-third of the $6,750,000 Settlement 10 Fund, or $2,250,000. Defendants do not oppose the fee request.

11                   When using the percentage-of-recovery method, courts consider a number of factors, 12 including whether class counsel “‘achieved exceptional results for the class,’ whether the case was 13 risky for class counsel, whether counsel’s performance ‘generated benefits beyond the cash 14 settlement fund,’ the market rate for the particular field of law (in some circumstances), the 15 burdens class counsel experienced while litigating the case (e.g., cost, duration, foregoing other 16 work), and whether the case was handled on a contingency basis.” In re Online DVD-Rental 17 Antitrust Litig., 779 F.3d 934, 954-55 (9th Cir. 2015) (quoting Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1047-50. Of 18 these considerations, “the most critical factor is the degree of success obtained.” Hensley v.
19 Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 436 (1983). Under the percentage-of-the-fund method, courts in the 20 Ninth Circuit “typically calculate 25% of the fund as the ‘benchmark’ for a reasonable fee award, 21 providing adequate explanation in the record of any ‘special circumstances’ justifying a 22 departure.” In re Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 942 (citing Six (6) Mexican Workers v. Ariz. Citrus 23 Growers, 904 F.2d 1301, 1311 (9th Cir. 1990)). The benchmark should be adjusted when the 24 percentage recovery would be “either too small or too large in light of the hours devoted to the 25 case or other relevant factors.” Six (6) Mexican Workers, 904 F.2d at 1311.

26                   Using the percentage-of-the-fund method, the Court finds the attorneys’ fees sought to be 27 reasonable. First, Class Counsel achieved “exceptional results” for the class. Plaintiffs estimate

1 the average range of realistic and supportable damages is $3,943,017 million to $15,940,213 2 million depending upon the methodology. Mot. 12. Based on this range, the Settlement would 3 provide a recovery of 68% of the midpoint. Id. This is a particularly favorable result for an 4 ERISA litigation. Cf. e.g., Marshall v. Northrop Grumman Corp., No. 16-CV-6794 AB (JCX), 5 2020 WL 5668935, at *2 (C.D. Cal. Sept. 18, 2020) (the $12.375 million settlement fund 6 represents approximately 29% of Plaintiffs’ claimed damages at trial); Emmons v. Quest 7 Diagnostics Clinical Lab’ys, Inc., No. 1:13-CV-00474-DAD-BAM, 2017 WL 749018, at *5 (E.D.
 8 Cal. Feb. 27, 2017) ($2.35 million settlement; 27.6% of claimed damages of $8.5 million); Cheng
 9 Jiangchen v. Rentech, Inc., No. 17-1490-GW, 2019 WL 5173771, at *7 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 10, 2019)
 10 ($2.05 million settlement; 10% of maximum damages of $20 million). Thus, this factor strongly 11 favors the requested upward departure from the benchmark.

12 Second, the risk of litigation favors an upward departure. Courts in the Ninth Circuit have 13 acknowledged that “ERISA 401(k) litigation is risky and even had Plaintiffs prevailed on the 14 merits, there would be significant uncertainty as to a damage award following trial.” Urakhchin v.
 15 Allianz Asset Mgmt. of Am., L.P., No. 8:15-CV-01614-JLS-JCG, 2018 WL 8334858, at *6 (C.D.
 16 Cal. July 30, 2018). Third, Class Counsel are highly experienced in prosecuting ERISA actions, 17 which weighs in favor of the requested fee award. For example, Miller Shah has recovered more 18 than $1 billion on behalf of their clients in ERISA actions. Rubinow Decl. ¶ 15. Fourth, the 19 contingent nature of representation in this case—in combination with the aforementioned 20 factors—supports an award of attorneys’ fees above the benchmark. See Marshall v. Northrop 21 Grumman Corp., No. 16-CV-6794 AB (JCX), 2020 WL 5668935, at *8 (C.D. Cal. Sept. 18, 22 2020). Class Counsel spent more than 3,500 hours over three years prosecuting this action with 23 the knowledge that they would have to pay overhead and the possibility of no recovery. Mot. 14; 24 Rubinow Decl. ¶ 19.

25 Finally, although the requested fee award is above the Ninth Circuit’s benchmark for class 26 actions, awards in similar ERISA cases support Class Counsel’s request for one-third of the fund.

1 Indeed, as noted by Judge Corley, “a 33.3% recovery is on par with settlements in other complex
2 ERISA class actions.” Foster v. Adams & Assocs., Inc., No. 18-CV-02723-JSC, 2022 WL 3 425559, at *10 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 11, 2022) (collecting cases). And significantly, the lack of any 4 objections to the fee request also supports Class Counsels’ fee request. Foster, 2022 WL 425559, 5 at *10; Waldbuesser v. Northrop Grumman Corp., No. CV 06-6213-AB (JCX), 2017 WL 6 9614818, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 24, 2017) (“The presence or absence of objections from the class is 7 also a factor in determining the proper fee award.”).

8 Accordingly, the Court finds that Class Counsel’s fee request of $2,250,000 is supported 9 by the Vizcaino factors.

10 2. Lodestar Cross-Check

11 The Court has also considered a cross-check using the lodestar method. Under the lodestar 12 approach, a court multiplies the number of hours reasonably expended by the reasonable hourly 13 rate. Kelly v. Wengler, 822 F.3d 1085, 1099 (9th Cir. 2016). “A reasonable hourly rate is 14 ordinarily the ‘prevailing market rate [] in the relevant community.’” Id. (quoting Perdue v.
15 Kenny A. ex rel. Winn, 559 U.S. 542, 551 (2010)).

16 Here, the lodestar figure is $1,841,533.50 across 3,552 hours. Rubinow Decl. ¶ 13. The 17 lodestar multiplier is 1.22. Id. This multiplier is within the range of modest multipliers accepted 18 and approved in this Circuit. See In re Omnivision Techs., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 1036, 1048 (N.D.
19 Cal. 2008) (approving fee award that represented lodestar multiplier of 1.33).

20 The Court finds that the hours claimed were reasonably incurred and that the rates charged 21 are reasonable and commensurate with those charged by attorneys with similar experience in the 22 market. Miller Shah billed at hourly rates ranging from $250 for paralegals, $375 to $550 for 23 associate attorneys, and $750 to $1,100 for partners. Rubinow Decl., Ex. A. Capozzi and Adler 24 billed at the following hourly rates: $350 for paralegals, $550 for associates, and $855 for 25 partners. Id. The sole attorney from Rosman and Germain billed at a rate of $695 per hour.
26 These rates are on par with the prevailing market rates in the district for ERISA litigators. See,

1 e.g., Foster 2022 WL 425559, at *9 (approving billing ranges from $265 to $975 across three 2 firms); Johnson v. Fujitsu Tech. & Bus. of Am., Inc., No. 16-CV-03698-NC, 2018 WL 2183253, at 3 *7 (N.D. Cal. May 11, 2018) (approving billing rates ranging from $600 to $875 per hour for 4 attorneys with more than 10 years of experience, $325 to $575 per hour for attorneys with 10 years 5 or less experience, and $250 per hour for paralegals). Moreover, the 3,552 hours spent 6 prosecuting this case were reasonable given the amount of work.

7 Accordingly, using both the percentage-of-the-fund and the lodestar method as a cross-8 check, the Court finds the attorneys’ fees sought to be reasonable.

9 B. Costs Award

10 Class counsel is entitled to reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Fed. R.
11 Civ. P. 23(h); see Harris v. Marhoefer, 24 F.3d 16, 19 (9th Cir. 1994) (holding that attorneys may 12 recover reasonable expenses that would typically be billed to paying clients in non-contingency 13 matters). Costs compensable under Rule 23(h) include “nontaxable costs that are authorized by 14 law or by the parties’ agreement.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(h). Here, Class Counsel seeks 15 reimbursement for litigation expenses, and provides records documenting those expenses, in the 16 amount of $119,386.02. See Rubinow Decl., Ex. B. Notably, Class Counsel does not seek 17 reimbursement of any travel expenses incurred in connection with its representation of the 18 Settlement Class, despite incurring such expenses in the course of this litigation. Id. ¶ 9.
19 Accordingly, the Court finds the requested amount reasonable, fair, and adequate.

20 C. Service Awards

21 Class Counsel requests service awards of $12,500 each for Class Representatives Bailey, 22 Hayes, and Robinson.

23 “It is well-established in this circuit that named plaintiffs in a class action are eligible for 24 reasonable incentive payments, also known as service awards.” Wren v. RGIS Inventory 25 Specialists, No. 06-cv-05778 JCS, 2011 WL 1230826, at *31 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 1, 2011), 26 supplemented, No. 06-cv-05778 JCS, 2011 WL 1838562 (N.D. Cal. May 13, 2011). To determine

1 the amount of the service award, the district court must evaluate named plaintiff’s requested award 2 using relevant factors including “the actions the plaintiff has taken to protect the interests of the 3 class, the degree to which the class has benefitted from those actions . . . [and] the amount of time 4 and effort the plaintiff expended in pursuing the litigation.” Staton, 327 F.3d at 977. “Such 5 awards are discretionary . . . and are intended to compensate class representatives for work done 6 on behalf of the class, to make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the 7 action, and, sometimes, to recognize their willingness to act as a private attorney general.”
8 Rodriguez v. West Publishing Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 958-959 (9th Cir. 2009). The “presumptively 9 reasonable” service award in this district is $5,000. Bellinghausen v. Tractor Supply Co., 306 10 F.R.D. 245, 266 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (collecting cases and explaining that $5,000 incentive award is 11 presumptively reasonable and that awards typically range from $2,000–$10,000).

12 During the Final Fairness hearing, Class Counsel reported that Bailey, Hayes, and 13 Robinson were very active throughout the case and dedicated close to 100 hours each in litigating 14 this action. Although the action settled before they were scheduled to be deposed, Class Counsel 15 indicated that Bailey, Hayes, and Robinson had thoroughly prepared for their depositions and had 16 attended mediation. When considered in the context with the total Settlement Amount and the 17 significant time and effort the Class Representatives expended on the litigation for the benefit of 18 the class, a service award greater than the “presumptively reasonable” $5,000 award is 19 appropriate, although the Court is unpersuaded that awards of $12,500 are justified in this action.
20 Thus, the Court approves an incentive award payment of $6,500 to each Class Representative.

21 IV. CONCLUSION

22 Based upon the foregoing, the motion for final approval of class settlement is GRANTED.
23 The request for attorneys’ fees, costs, and service awards is GRANTED IN PART as follows: Class 24 Counsel is awarded $2,250,000 in attorneys’ fees and $119,386.02 in litigation costs, and Class 25 Representatives Bailey, Hayes, and Robinson are granted an incentive award of $6,500 each.
