1. On February 27, 2007 a confusing temporary restraining order was granted by The Honorable Judge Richard E.L. Strauss for Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad to immediately cease using the website pacificlawcenters.com which is owned by Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad.
2. The temporary restraining order was and is designed by the plaintiff to intentionally mislead and to confuse any person that sees the order.
3. Plaintiff has made several attempts with the signed temporary restraining order by the Judge to intercept domain names owned by Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad from godaddy.com.
4. Plaintiff has been with success of violating the rights of Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad by knowingly and intentionally misusing the confusing temporary restraining order by providing copies to domain name, website owners, and website operators that Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad has been using to post facts about the plaintiff and the plaintiff's counsel on the World Wide Web.
5. Plaintiff is and has been knowingly violating my freedom of speech.
6. On March 14, 2007 plaintiff made attempts of confusing the Superior Court of California that I have violated the temporary restraining order, and plaintiff was told by the judge that this attempt will not work. Plaintiff's counsel told the court that Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smita will also amend the civil action by also becoming as alleged victims of Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad.
7. On March 14, 2007 plaintiff knowingly and intentionally failed to tell the court and Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad that a new civil action has been filed against Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad by Pacific Law Center and Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith on March 13, 2007 in The United States District Court, Southern District of California, Case No. 3:2007CV00460.

8. Copy of filed new civil action against Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad by Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith and Pacific Law Center is attached as exhibit (A). Pacific Law Center is making the exact same allegations against me in 2 different courts at the same time.
9. The allegations against Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad in the United States District Court civil action filed on March 13, 2007 is the same as the civil action filed in The Superior Court of California on January 12, 2007.
10. In exhibit (A) on page 4, line 17, item number 24 the plaintiffs again knowingly and intentionally misuse the signed temporary restraining order by intentionally misleading the United States District Court that I am ordered to cease using other domain names other than pacificlawcenters.com and I am ordered to not write "Pacific Law Center" in any published communication.
11. Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad asks The Superior Court of California Judge Richard E.L. Strauss to take all actions in its power against Pacific Law Center and Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith from practicing law as a whole and to seek criminal charges. They have proven on court records several times that they have no respect for the Superior Court or its Judges and they have no respect for the United States District Court or its Judges and they have no respect for freedom of speech and the laws of The United States of America.
12. Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad asks The Superior Court of California Judge Richard E.L. Strauss to write and sign a declaration regarding the signed temporary restraining order by the Honorable Judge on February 27, 2007 which Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad was not present for so I may submit and file in The United States District Court for civil case No. 3:2007CV00460 which was filed on March 13, 2007. I must file a response by March 28, 2007 which is the same day as I have to appear in a court on criminal charges which all parties are well aware of.
13. Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad asks The Superior Court of California Judge Richard E.L. Strauss to throw out the temporary restraining order against Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad and to dismiss civil case No. GIC878352.

14. All actions by Pacific Law Center and Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith against Shahrokh Saadat-Nejad whom is the owner and operator of USHOSTAGE.com is nothing short of pure hate crimes based on my personal views of the occupation of Afghanistan, Iraq and Palestine by The United States of America and the United States backed Israel Zionist Terrorists. Israel is occupied land by child molesters which Pacific Law Center and Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith support and defend 100%. I can and I will continue to express my personal thoughts on the World Wide Web.
