15	Defendant.
16
17	Plaintiff Ronny King ("King") filed this	social security appeal on April 28, 2008, and it
18	<ul> <li>was referred to Magistrate Judge Brooks on May 8, 2008 for a Report and Recommendation ("R&amp;R"). (Dkt. Nos. 1, 4.) Judge Brooks issued his R&amp;R on March 18, 2009, recommending that King's case be dismissed without prejudice. The R&amp;R is hereby ADOPTED. King has repeatedly failed to prosecute his case. As the R&amp;R details, King initially failed to serve any of the proper parties, and after a status hearing on December 8, 2008, he served the Social Security Administration but not, as required by law, the United States Attorney for this district and the Attorney General of the United States. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(i) (1)(A)-(B). When the Court held a second status hearing on March 16, 2009, and again considered dismissing this case for want of prosecution, King did not appear.</li> </ul>
