UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

MRC GOLF, INC.,)	Civil No. 09cv327-L(RBB)
Plaintiff,)	ORDER GRANTING EX PARTE
)	APPLICATION TO WITHDRAW AS
v.)	COUNSEL OF RECORD
HIPPO GOLF COMPANY, INC.,)
Defendant.)

On October 27, 2009 counsel for Defendant Hippo Golf Company, Inc. filed an ex parte application to withdraw as counsel of record. Although Defendant and Plaintiff were served with the application, they did not respond. For the reasons which follow, the application to withdraw is GRANTED.

An attorney representing a client before a tribunal may not withdraw except by leave of court. Darby v. City of Torrance, 810 F. Supp. 275, 276 (C.D. Cal. 1992); Cal. R. Prof. Conduct 3-700(A)(1). This court requires counsel to “comply with the standards of professional conduct required of members of the State Bar of California, and decisions of any court applicable thereto.” Civ. Loc. R. 83.4(b).

Counsel maintains withdrawal is necessitated by Defendant’s failure to meet its obligation to communicate and cooperate with its counsel in the proceedings, and to meet its

1 financial obligations.¹ The counsel argue these circumstances have rendered it impossible to
2 continue to adequately represent Defendant.

3 Withdrawal is permissible under these circumstances. See Cal. R. Prof. Conduct & 3-
4 700(C)(1)(d) (unreasonably difficult for counsel to carry out his employment) & 3-700(C)(1)(f)
5 (failure to pay fees). Although the rules do not mandate withdrawal, they make it permissive.

6 An attorney may not withdraw until he or she “has taken reasonable steps to avoid
7 reasonably foreseeable prejudice to the rights of the client . . .” Cal. R. Prof. Conduct 3-
8 100(A)(2). Counsel have represented to the court that prior to requesting withdrawal, they had
9 made all required efforts to protect Defendant from prejudice and would continue to protect it
10 from prejudice pending an order permitting withdrawal. Having reviewed the application and 11 the supporting declarations of counsel, the court finds good cause to grant the application.

12 Defendant is a corporation and therefore must be represented by counsel. See Civ. Local 13 Rule 83.3(k); D-Beam Ltd. P’ship v. Roller Derby Skates, Inc., 366 F.3d 972, 973-74 (9th Cir.
14 2004). No later than December 4, 2009 Defendant shall file a notice of appearance identifying 15 its new counsel, including address and telephone number.

16 For the foregoing reasons, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

- 17 1. Defense counsel’s ex parte application to withdraw as counsel of record is 18 GRANTED.
- 19 2. The Clerk of Court shall reflect on the docket that Law Offices of Gray Robinson P.A.
20 and Luce, Forward, Hamilton & Scripps LLP are terminated as counsel for Defendant.
- 21 3. Defense counsel shall serve a copy of this order on Defendant by most expeditious 22 means available and file a proof of service no later than November 9, 2009.
- 23 4. No later than December 4, 2009 Defendant shall file a notice of appearance 24 identifying its new counsel, including address and telephone number.

25
26 ¹ Under the State Bar of California Rules of Professional Conduct, attorneys are 27 bound to preserve client confidences when seeking withdrawal, if disclosing them would 28 prejudice the client or violate the counsel’s duty of confidentiality. See Cal. R. Prof. Conduct 3-
700(A)(2). In light of these limitations, counsel often is not able to discuss in detail the reasons for withdrawal.

1 5. Defendant's answer may be stricken, default entered against it, and its counterclaims
2 may be dismissed if it fails timely to comply with this order.

3 IT IS SO ORDERED.
