The Court granted 24 25 Plaintiff's Motion to Proceed IFP but simultaneously dismissed his Complaint for failing to state a claim. See Apr. 21, 2010 Order at 4-5. Plaintiff filed his First Amended Complaint ("FAC") on May 24, 2010.

Subsequently, Plaintiff filed a "Motion for Leave to Amend/Supplement First Amended Complaint," Motion to Appoint Counsel, and a "Motion for Law Library Access and Copy of Court Docket." [ECF Nos. 5, 7, 8].

The Court denied Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Counsel, granted in part and denied in part Plaintiff's Motion for Law Library Access and copy of Court Docket, and granted Plaintiff leave to file a Second Amended Complaint. See July 12, 2010 Order at 3. Plaintiff filed a Second Amended Complaint on August 16, 2010. Then Plaintiff filed a "Motion for Leave to File Third Amended Complaint, Motion for Extension of Time to File Third Amended Complaint and Motion for Order for the Clerk to send only my Declaration in my Second Amended Complaint" [ECF No. 12].

The Court granted Plaintiff's Motion, in part, and allowed Plaintiff an extension of time to file his Third Amended Complaint. See Sept. 14, 2010 Order at 2. However, the Court denied Plaintiff's request for a copy of his "declaration" because it simply was not clear what document he was referring to. Id. at 2.

On November 3, 2010, Plaintiff filed a "Motion for Reconsideration in the last Court's Order pertaining to Plaintiff's extension of time to amend his Complaint" [ECF No. 17]. In this Motion, Plaintiff requested one of two options in which he sought a Court order either: (1) directing the Clerk of Court to send him a copy of his Second Amended Complaint and provide an additional twenty five days to file his Third Amended Complaint; or (2) directing the Warden of Kern Valley State Prison to turn over his legal property. The Court again granted Plaintiff an extension of time to file his Third Amended Complaint and provided him with a copy of his Second Amended Complaint. However, Plaintiff was cautioned that he must show good cause for any future requests for extensions of time and the Court will not continue to provide him with free photocopies of any future pleadings he chooses to file.

Plaintiff then filed his Third Amended Complaint ("TAC") which is ninety (90) pages long, named forty two (42) defendants and contained a different claim against a different defendant on each page. Plaintiff also filed a "Motion for 3 Judge Court."

This Court denied Plaintiff's Motion for "3 Judge Court" and dismissed his Third Amended Complaint for failing to comply with Rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rule 8.2. Plaintiff was granted leave to file a Fourth Amended Complaint.

Instead of filing a Fourth Amended Complaint, Plaintiff has filed a "Motion for Extension of Time to File and a Request for Additional Count Sheets" and "Motion for Reconsideration" of the Court's May 20, 2011 Order.

I. Motion for Reconsideration

Under Rule 60(b), a motion for "relief from judgment or order" may be filed within a "reasonable time," but usually must be filed "not more than one year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken." FED.R.CIV.P. 60(b). Reconsideration under Rule 60 may be granted in the case of: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence; or (3) fraud; or if (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied; or (6) for any other reason justifies relief. FED.R.CIV. P. 60(b).

In this Motion, Plaintiff claims that he needs additional pages that exceed the limits placed by the Local Rules and the Court's Order was "unjust." Pl.'s Mot. at 1-4. Plaintiff also argues that the Court was in error when his motion for a "3 Judge Court" was denied. Plaintiff claims that due to prison overcrowding and his medical issues, he has adequately shown that he requires a "3-Judge court to convene concerning my case because it fits the standards of the ruling in Plata v. Brown recently decided by the United States Supreme Court." Id. at 5.

Here, while the Court will permit Plaintiff to exceed the number of pages permitted by Local Rule 8.2, the Court's denies Plaintiff's Motion for Reconsideration of the Court's denial of the 3-Judge Court as it is not required in this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2284.

III. Motion for Extension of Time to File Fourth Amended Complaint

The Court sets forth the above lengthy procedural history in this case to demonstrate that Plaintiff has been given adequate opportunities to file his pleadings. This matter is now more than a year old and remains in the screening stage. Moreover, with each additional amended pleading, Plaintiff has added an overly burdensome number of Defendants and claims. "Prolix, confusing complaints such as the ones plaintiffs filed in this case impose unfair burdens on litigants and judges." McHenry v. Renne, 84 F.3d 1172, 1179 (9th Cir. 1996). Such complaints causes judges to "waste half a day in chambers preparing the 'short and plain statement" which Rule 8 obligated plaintiffs to submit." Id. at 1180. The Court will grant Plaintiff an extension of time and will permit him to file a Fourth Amended Complaint not to exceed forty five (45) pages. Plaintiff must abide by Rule 8 and all of the previous Court Orders. Plaintiff is admonished that no further extensions of time will be granted absent exceptional circumstances.

III. Conclusion and Order

Good cause appearing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

- 1. Plaintiff's Motion for Extension of Time and Motion for Reconsideration are GRANTED in part and DENIED in part [ECF Nos. 26, 27].
- 2. Plaintiff has forty five (45) days leave from the date this Order is "Filed" in which to file a Fourth Amended Complaint and it is not to exceed forty five (45) pages. Plaintiff's Amended Complaint must be complete in itself without reference to the superseded pleading. See S.D. Cal. Civ. L. R. 15.1. Defendants not named and all claims not re-alleged in the Amended Complaint will be deemed to have been waived. See King v. Atiyeh, 814 F.2d 565, 567 (9th Cir. 1987).
