13 vs. Plaintiff,
14 ROB FRANKS; et al.,
15 Defendants.

CASE NO. 10-cv-1408 BEN (BGS)
ORDER DENYING MOTION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS
AND DISMISSING COMPLAINT
WITHOUT PREJUDICE

16 On July 6, 2010, Plaintiff, proceeding pro se and requesting in forma pauperis status, initiated 17 this action against Defendant, alleging violation of the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1983. According 18 to Plaintiff, Defendant lives on the same road as Plaintiff in Jamul, California. On or around June 19, 19 2010, Defendant allegedly requested that Plaintiff remove brush that Plaintiff had previously left on 20 the road. (Compl., ¶ 1.) At some point over the next two weeks, guns became involved in the dispute.
21 (Id. at ¶ 2.) Plaintiff claims he was intimidated by Defendant and Defendant discriminated against him 22 because he was black. Id. For the reasons set forth below, the Court denies Plaintiff's request for in 23 forma pauperis status and dismisses the Complaint without prejudice based on lack of subject matter 24 jurisdiction.

25 MOTION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

26 Plaintiff attaches to his Complaint a Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis. (Docket No. 1.)

27 Under Section 1915 of title 28 of the United States Code,

28 any court of the United States may authorize the commencement, prosecution or defense of any suit, action or proceeding . . . without

1 prepayment of fees or security therefor, by a person who submits an 2 affidavit that includes a statement of all assets such [person] possesses 3 that the person is unable to pay such fees or give security therefor.

4 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1). Here, Plaintiff states he is not currently employed. (Mot., pg. 2.) Plaintiff
5 states he receives $1,591.50 per month in social security. Id. Plaintiff also has a bank account with 6 a balance of approximately $300.00. Id. Although a party need not be completely destitute to proceed
7 IFP, a party must still show by affidavit or other similarly reliable source that, because of his or her 8 poverty, he or she cannot pay the filing fee and still provide the "necessities of life" for his or her 9 family. Adkins v. E.I. DuPont de Nemours & Co., 335 U.S. 331, 339-40 (1948). Plaintiff fails to 10 satisfy that requirement here and, therefore, is not excused from paying the $350 filing fee to 11 commence this action.

12 Plaintiff's Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis is DENIED.

13 DISMISSAL OF ACTION WITHOUT PREJUDICE

14 A complaint filed by any person proceeding, or seeking to proceed, in forma pauperis under 15 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a) is subject to mandatory sua sponte review and dismissal if the complaint is 16 frivolous or malicious, fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary relief
17 from a defendant immune from suit. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B); Lopez v. Smith, 203 F.3d 1122, 1126-
18 27 (9th Cir. 2000). The Court also has an independent obligation to assess its own subject matter
19 jurisdiction at all times. Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(h)(3). Having reviewed the Complaint, the Court finds it 20 lacks subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims.

21 Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction. Federal courts may adjudicate only those cases 22 which the Constitution and Congress authorize them to adjudicate: essentially those cases involving 23 diversity of citizenship, federal question, or to which the United States is a party. Kokkonen v.
24 Guardian Life Ins. Co. of America, 511 U.S. 375, 377 (1994). Federal courts are presumptively
25 without jurisdiction over civil actions and the burden of establishing the contrary rests on the party 26 asserting jurisdiction. Id.

27 Plaintiff seeks to establish federal question jurisdiction by alleging a claim arising under the 28 Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The Civil Rights Act provides,

 Every person who, under color of any statute, ordinance,

1 regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory or the District of 2 Columbia, subjects, or causes to be subjected, any citizen of the United 3 States or other person within the jurisdiction thereof to the deprivation 4 of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and 5 laws, shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit in 6 equity, or other proper proceeding for redress. . .

7 42 U.S.C. § 1983. To state a Section 1983 claim, Plaintiff must allege a violation of a
8 cognizable interest, see Baker v. McCollan, 443 U.S. 137 (1979), and that the injuries were inflicted 9 by an individual acting on behalf of the government, see Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 (1967).

10 Here, Plaintiff fails to allege Defendant acted under color of state law when Defendant
11 allegedly deprived Plaintiff of his constitutional rights. The identified actors are individual neighbors
12 of Plaintiff. (Compl., pg. 2-3.) There are no allegations suggesting that any of the alleged wrongdoing
13 is attributable to state actors. Individuals are not generally liable for violations of most rights secured
14 by the United States Constitution. Lugar v. Edmonson Oil Co., 457 U.S. 922, 936 (1982). In order
15 to maintain a cause of action based upon allegations of constitutional violations, Plaintiff must show
16 that the actions complained of are "fairly attributable" to the government. Rendell-Baker v. Kohn, 457
17 U.S. 830, 838 (1982); Vincent v. Trend Western Technical Corp., 828 F.2d 563, 567 (9th Cir. 1987).

18 Here, the complaint fails to allege that the complained of conduct is attributable, in any way, to the 19 government. Accordingly, the Court finds Plaintiff fails to establish subject matter jurisdiction in this 20 Court over any claim set forth in the Complaint. As such, the Complaint must be dismissed. Fed. R.
21 Civ. P. 12(h)(3).

22 For the reasons set forth above, the Complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for 23 lack of subject matter jurisdiction. The Clerk of the Court is instructed to close the file in this case.
