IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

INFINITY,

Plaintiff,

No. CIV S-10-2709 LKK KJM PS

vs.

KELLOGG, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER

Plaintiff is proceeding in this action pro se. The federal venue statute requires that a civil action wherein jurisdiction is founded only on diversity of citizenship may be brought only in "(1) a judicial district where any defendant resides, if all defendants reside in the same State, (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated, or (3) a judicial district in which any defendant may be found, if there is no district in which the action may otherwise be brought." 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a).

In this diversity action, all of the defendants do not reside in the same State. However, a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred in the Southern District of California. Therefore, plaintiff's claim should have been filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California. In the interest of justice, a federal court

1 may transfer a complaint filed in the wrong district to the correct district. See 28 U.S.C.
2 § 1406(a); Starnes v. McGuire, 512 F.2d 918, 932 (D.C. Cir. 1974).

3 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this matter is transferred to the 4 United States District Court for the Southern District of California.

5 DATED: October 14, 2010.
