UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

PATRICK O’HARA,

Petitioner,

v.

JAMES HARTLEY, Warden, et al.,

Respondents.

Civil No. 10-2225 WQH (PCL)

ORDER:

- (1) GRANTING APPLICATION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS; and
- (2) DISMISSING CASE WITHOUT PREJUDICE AND WITH LEAVE TO AMEND

Petitioner, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, has submitted a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254, together with a request to proceed in forma pauperis.

MOTION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Petitioner has $0.00 on account at the California correctional institution in which he is presently confined. Petitioner cannot afford the $5.00 filing fee. Thus, the Court GRANTS Petitioner’s application to proceed in forma pauperis, and allows Petitioner to prosecute the above-referenced action as a poor person without being required to prepay fees or costs and without being required to post security. The Clerk of the Court shall file the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus without prepayment of the filing fee.

1 FAILURE TO NAME PROPER RESPONDENT

2 Review of the Petition reveals that Petitioner has failed to name a proper respondent. On 3 federal habeas, a state prisoner must name the state officer having custody of him as the
4 respondent. Ortiz-Sandoval v. Gomez, 81 F.3d 891, 894 (9th Cir. 1996) (citing Rule 2(a), 28
5 U.S.C. foll. § 2254). Federal courts lack personal jurisdiction when a habeas petition fails to 6 name a proper respondent. See id.

7 The warden is the typical respondent. However, “the rules following section 2254 do not
8 specify the warden.” Id. “[T]he ‘state officer having custody’ may be ‘either the warden of the 9 institution in which the petitioner is incarcerated . . . or the chief officer in charge of state penal
10 institutions.’” Id. (quoting Rule 2(a), 28 U.S.C. foll. § 2254 advisory committee’s note). If “a 11 petitioner is in custody due to the state action he is challenging, ‘[t]he named respondent shall 12 be the state officer who has official custody of the petitioner (for example, the warden of the 13 prison).’” Id. (quoting Rule 2, 28 U.S.C. foll. § 2254 advisory committee’s note).

14 A long standing rule in the Ninth Circuit holds “that a petitioner may not seek [a writ of]
15 habeas corpus against the State under . . . [whose] authority . . . the petitioner is in custody. The 16 actual person who is [the] custodian [of the petitioner] must be the respondent.” Ashley v.
17 Washington, 394 F.2d 125, 126 (9th Cir. 1968). This requirement exists because a writ of 18 habeas corpus acts upon the custodian of the state prisoner, the person who will produce “the
19 body” if directed to do so by the Court. “Both the warden of a California prison and the Director
20 of Corrections for California have the power to produce the prisoner.” Ortiz-Sandoval, 81 F.3d
21 at 895.

22 Here, Petitioner has incorrectly named “James Hartley, Warden,” as Respondent. In order
23 for this Court to entertain the Petition filed in this action, Petitioner must name the warden in 24 charge of the state correctional facility in which Petitioner is presently confined or the Director
25 of the California Department of Corrections. Brittingham v. United States, 982 F.2d 378, 379
26 (9th Cir. 1992) (per curiam).

CONCLUSION

Accordingly, the Court GRANTS Petitioner’s motion to proceed in forma pauperis and DISMISSES the Petition without prejudice and with leave to amend. To have this case reopened, Petitioner must, no later than January 3, 2011, file a First Amended Petition which cures the pleading deficiencies outlined in this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: November 2, 2010

WILLIAM Q. HAYES
United States District Judge
