v.)	LITEM (DOC. #20)

Defendant.)

1 On June 7, 2011, proposed Guardian Ad Litem Serena Blach-
2 Villnow filed an Ex Parte Motion For Appointment as Guardian Ad
3 Litem in case number 11-0797 (hereafter "Guardian Life case"). On 4 June 14, 2011, proposed Guardian Ad Litem Serena Blach-Villnow filed
5 an Ex Parte Motion For Appointment as Guardian Ad Litem in case
6 number 11-0871 (hereafter "Pruco case"). In both Motions, Ms. Blach-7 Villnow, Plaintiff's sister, requests that she be appointed as the 8 Guardian Ad Litem (hereafter "GAL") for Plaintiff Pamela
9 Stonebreaker's and the deceased's minor children, Kristin 10 Stonebreaker, Kelli Stonebreaker and Ryan Stonebreaker (hereafter 11 "minor children").^{1/}

12 Defendant Guardian Life Insurance Company of America
13 (hereafter "Guardian Life"), does not oppose the appointment of a 14 GAL for Plaintiff's minor children, but objects to Ms. Blach-15 Villnow's appointment as GAL for them, because she appears to be 16 "too close to (Plaintiff) to independently represent the interest of 17 the minor (children) particularly when the interests of the minor 18 (children) may be adverse to (Plaintiff's) interests." Instead,
19 Guardian Life proposes that David Stonebreaker, the deceased's 20 brother, act as the GAL, because he currently serves as the 21 conservator for the grandfather of the minor children. Further, 22 Defendant Western Reserve Life Assurance Company (hereafter "Western 23 Reserve"), has applied to the San Diego Superior Court to have David 24 Stonebreaker appointed as Special Administrator for the estate of 25 the deceased. However, Western Reserve does not oppose the appoint-
26 ment of either Ms. Blach-Villnow or David Stonebreaker as GAL.

27
28 ^{1/} The Court notes that Kristin Stonebreaker is 15 years old, Kelli Stonebreaker is 13 years old, and Ryan Stonebreaker is five years old.

1 The Court having reviewed the papers submitted by counsel,
2 and having met privately with the minor children, HEREBY ORDERS:

3 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17 states in pertinent part:

4 (b) Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as 5 follows:

6 ...
7 (3) ... by the law of the state where the court
8 is located.

9 ...
10 (c)(2) A minor... who does not have a duly 11 appointed representative may sue by a next friend or 12 by a guardian ad litem. The court must appoint a 13 guardian ad litem - or issue another appropriate order 14 - to protect a minor... who is unrepresented in an 15 action.

16 California law applies to determine capacity to sue. Pursuant 17 to California law, a minor must be represented by a GAL in court 18 proceedings. Cal. Code of Civ. Pro. §372(a). A court has broad 19 discretion in ruling on an application for appointment of a GAL.
20 Kulya v. City and County of San Francisco, 2007 WL 760776 at *1
21 (N.D. Cal. 2007), citing Williams v. Superior Court, 147 Cal. App 4th 22 36, 47 (2007).

23 The GAL's main focus is the best interest of the minor. The 24 GAL is an officer of the court with the right to control the minor's 25 litigation. When a court chooses a GAL for a civil lawsuit, the most 26 important issue is the protection of the minor's interest in the 27 litigation. Kulya, supra, at *1. Under such circumstances, a parent 28 with a conflict of interest is not entitled to select the GAL or control the tactical or strategic decision made by the GAL and/or the minor child's attorney. Bhatia v. Corrigan, 2007 WL 1455908 at *1 (N.D. Cal. 2007), citing Williams, supra, at 50.

 Here, the Court met with the minor children and spoke privately with them. During the meeting, the Court explained to the

1 minor children the purpose of the meeting, the appointment of a GAL
2 for them who has their best interests in mind, and that Ms. Blach-
3 Villnow and David Stonebreaker have been proposed as the GAL.
4 Kristin and Kelli Stonebreaker^{2/} candidly discussed with the Court 5 their lives since the death of their father, the deceased, and their 6 views regarding Ms. Blach-Villnow and David Stonebreaker.

7 Due to the upheaval in Kristin and Kelli's family after the 8 death of their father and the many strangers that have been involved 9 in their lives since his death, they expressed their desire to have 10 someone familiar to them to be appointed as their GAL. They 11 expressed their desire that Ms. Blach-Villnow be appointed as their 12 GAL.

13 After having reviewed the papers submitted by counsel and the 14 authorities cited therein, and having met with the minor children
15 and discussed the appointment of a GAL for them, the Court finds 16 that neither Ms. Blach-Villnow nor David Stonebreaker would be 17 appropriate to serve as GAL for the minor children. The Court finds 18 that Ms. Blach-Villnow and David Stonebreaker have an actual or 19 potential conflict of interest in influencing any tactical or 20 strategic decisions to be made in this litigation.

21 While the Court does not desire to add to the minor chil-
22 dren's strife under the circumstances presented to them, the Court 23 believes that it is in the best interests of the minor children that 24 a neutral GAL be appointed for them. See Bhatia, supra, at *1-2.

25 Therefore, on or before June 30, 2011, Plaintiff shall 26 provide three names of neutral GALs to Defendants and the Court.

27
28 ^{2/} Kristin and Kelli Stonebreaker are charming and intelligent young ladies who displayed remarkable maturity and understanding of the litigation.

1 Collectively, and on or before the same day, counsel for Defendants
2 (in both the Gaurdian Life case and the Pruco case) shall provide 3 three names of neutral GALs to Plaintiff and the Court. The 4 submissions made by Plaintiff and Defendants shall identify the 5 reason(s) why the persons named qualify to be a GAL in this case and 6 shall provide any other information about that person which the 7 Court should consider in making a determination of the appropriate 8 GAL in this action.

9 Thereafter, Plaintiff and Defendants shall have the opportu-10 nity to strike one name from each other's proposed GALs. On or 11 before July 5, 2011, Plaintiff and Defendants shall notify the Court
12 which proposed GALs have been stricken. From the remaining names, 13 the Court shall appoint a GAL for the minor children.

14 As a result, the Court DENIES Ms. Blach-Villnow's Ex Parte
15 Motion For Appointment of Guardian Ad Litem, sustains Guardian 16 Life's objection to the appointment of Ms. Blach-Villnow, and 17 rejects Guardian Life's proposal that David Stonebreaker serve as 18 GAL.

19 IT IS SO ORDERED.
