

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CHOICE HOTELS INTERNATIONAL,
INC., a Delaware Corporation,,

Plaintiff,

v.

KUSUM VALI, INC., a California
corporation, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 11cv1277 BTM(WMc)

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO SET ASIDE ENTRY OF DEFAULT AND GRANTING DEFAULT JUDGMENT

On September 19, 2011, Plaintiff Choice Hotels International, Inc., filed a motion for default judgment. On December 1, 2011, Defendants Kusum Vali, Inc. ("Kusum"), Sunil Patel ("S. Patel"), and Tejas Patel ("T. Patel") filed a motion to set aside entry of default. In an order filed on May 3, 2012, the Court conditionally granted the motion to set aside entry of default. The Court granted the motion to set aside entry of default on the condition that the moving defendants pay Plaintiff $7,500 as reasonable attorney's fees for bringing the motion for default judgment. The Court ordered the defendants to pay the $7,500 to Plaintiff and file a certification of payment with the Court within 30 days of the filing of the Order. The defendants have not filed anything indicating that they have complied with the Court's order. Therefore, their motion to set aside entry of default is DENIED, and the Court proceeds to Plaintiff's motion for default judgment. For the reasons set forth below, Plaintiff's motion for default judgment is GRANTED.

1 I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

2 On June 10, 2011, Plaintiff Choice Hotels International, Inc. (“Plaintiff”) commenced
3 this action. Plaintiff is the owner of a number of trademarks for the mark “ECONO LODGE”
4 for use in connection with the provision of hotel and motel services. (Compl. ¶¶ 21-30.)

5 On or about March 31, 2007, Plaintiff entered into a Franchise Agreement with 6 Kusum, S. Patel, T. Patel, and Navnit Khatri (“Khatri”) (collectively “Defendants”), which 7 permitted them to operate an ECONO LODGE® hotel franchise at 330 North Imperial
8 Avenue, El Centro, CA 92243 (the “Hotel”). (Compl. ¶ 31.) The Franchise Agreement
9 licensed the ECONO LODGE family of marks to Defendants for so long as the Franchise
10 Agreement remained in effect. (Compl. ¶ 32.)

11 On or about March 11, 2010, Plaintiff issued a Notice of Termination of the Franchise
12 Agreement to Defendants based on their failure to pay certain required fees under the terms
13 of the Agreement. (Compl. ¶ 40.) The Notice of Termination instructed Defendants to cease
14 use of any and all of the ECONO LODGE family of marks. (Compl. ¶¶ 41-42.) The Notice
15 also advised Defendants that under the terms of the Agreement, they were obligated to pay
16 Plaintiff $7,912.89 in franchise and related fees, $797.47 in travel agent commission fees,
17 and $37,375.00 in lost profits. (Compl. ¶ 43.)

18 Plaintiff alleges that Defendants continued to use the ECONO LODGE family of marks
19 in, around, and in publicity for, the Hotel from March 2010 to June 2011. (Compl. ¶ 46;
20 Baehr Decl. ¶ 5.) Plaintiff asserts claims for infringement of federally registered trademark
21 (15 U.S.C. § 1114), false designation of origin (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), trademark infringement
22 under California law, and violation of the California Unfair Competition Law (Cal. Bus. & Prof.
23 Code § 17200). Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief as well as economic damages. Plaintiff also 24 requests treble damages and attorney’s fees and costs.

25 On July 18, 2011, default was entered against Kusum. On July 20, 2011, default was 26 entered against S. Patel and T. Patel. On August 12, 2011, default was entered against 27 Khatri.

28

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

II. STANDARD

Entry of default judgment is governed by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(b) and is left to the trial court's sound discretion. Aldabe v. Aldabe, 616 F.2d 1089, 1092 (9th Cir. 1980). After default has been entered, the well-pleaded factual allegations of the complaint, except those relating to the amount of damages, shall be taken as true. Geddes v. United Fin. Group, 559 F.2d 557, 560 (9th Cir. 1977). In determining damages, the court can rely on evidence submitted by the plaintiff or may conduct a full evidentiary hearing. Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b)(2). A judgment by default shall not award damages that are different from or exceed the amount requested in the plaintiff's complaint. Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(c).

Factors which may be considered by courts in exercising their discretion as to whether to enter default judgment include: (1) the possibility of prejudice to plaintiff; (2) the merits of plaintiff's substantive claims; (3) the sufficiency of the complaint; (4) the sum of money at stake in the action; (5) the possibility of a dispute concerning material facts; (6) whether the default was due to excusable neglect; and (7) the strong policy underlying the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure favoring decisions on the merits. Eitel v. McCool, 782 F.2d 1470, 1472 (9th Cir. 1986).

III. DISCUSSION

Plaintiff seeks default judgment against Defendants. As discussed below, the Court finds that Plaintiff is entitled to default judgment against Defendants in the amount of $27,722.90.

A. Eitel Factors

The Eitel factors weigh in favor of granting default judgment. Defendants were given the opportunity to participate in this litigation when the Court conditionally granted their motion to vacate default. Defendants did not comply with the conditions and have therefore chosen to not defend this action. Because Defendants are not participating in this action, Plaintiff will be left without a remedy if default judgment is not entered in its favor. Plaintiff's

1 claims against Defendants are meritorious, and the sum of money at stake in the action is 2 significant.

3
4 B. Merits of Claims

5 Plaintiff has asserted a claim of federal trademark infringement (15 U.S.C. § 1114)
6 against Defendants. To establish its claim, Plaintiff must establish that Defendants are using
7 (1) any reproduction, counterfeit, copy of colorable imitation of a mark; (2) without Plaintiff's
8 consent; (3) in commerce; (4) in connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution or 9 advertising of any goods or services; (5) where such use is likely to cause confusion or to 10 cause a mistake or to deceive. Century 21 Real Estate Corp. v. Sandlin, 846 F.2d 1175,
11 1178 (9th Cir. 1988). Plaintiff has established that Defendants continued to use the ECONO
12 LODGE family of marks, without Plaintiff's consent, in, around, and in publicity for, the Hotel
13 from March 2010 to June 2011. (Compl. ¶¶ 46; Baehr Decl. ¶¶ 5.) Defendants' unauthorized
14 use of the marks created confusion regarding the origin of the hotel services.

15 Based on the same facts, Plaintiff has also established its claims of false designation
16 of origin (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)), state law trademark infringement (Cal Bus. & Prof. Code §
17 14245), and violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200. See Wecosign, Inc. v. IFG
18 Holdings, Inc., __ F. Supp. 2d __, 2012 WL 638454, at * 3 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012)
19 (explaining that claims of false designation of origin and unfair competition under § 17200 20 are substantially congruent with a federal trademark infringement claim).

21
22 C. Remedies

23 1. Injunctive Relief

24 Plaintiff seeks a permanent injunction prohibiting Defendants from any unauthorized
25 use of the ECONO LODGE family of marks. Under the Lanham Act, the district court has 26 the "power to grant injunctions according to principles of equity and upon such terms as the 27 court may deem reasonable, to prevent the violation of any right" of the trademark owner.
28 15 U.S.C. § 1116(a). The Ninth Circuit has held that "[i]njunctive relief is the remedy of

1 choice for trademark and unfair competition cases, since there is no adequate remedy at law
2 for the injury caused by a defendant's continuing infringement."

3 In order for the court to grant a permanent injunction, Plaintiff must demonstrate: (1)
4 actual success on the merits; (2) a likelihood of irreparable injury if injunctive relief is not
5 granted; (3) a balance of hardships favoring Plaintiff; and (4) that an injunction will advance
6 the public interest. Winter v. Natural Res. Def. Counsel, 555 U.S. 7, 20 (2008).

7 Plaintiff has satisfied the requirements for obtaining a permanent injunction. As 8 discussed above, Plaintiff has demonstrated a likelihood of success on its claims. Plaintiff
9 has also shown a likelihood of irreparable injury if a permanent injunction is not granted. In 10 a trademark infringement action, "once the plaintiff establishes a likelihood of confusion, it
11 is ordinarily presumed that the plaintiff will suffer irreparable harm if injunctive relief is not 12 granted." Vision Sports, Inc. v. Melville Corp., 888 F.2d 609, 612 (9th Cir. 1989). Although 13 it appears that Defendants no longer own or operate the hotel at 330 North Imperial Avenue,
14 El Centro, CA 92243, as far as the Court can tell, some of the Defendants are still engaged
15 in the hotel business. Therefore, there is a risk that Defendants will continue to use
16 Plaintiff's marks. The balance of hardships favor Plaintiff because an injunction will only
17 proscribe Defendants' infringing activities. Finally, an injunction is in the public interest
18 because "[t]he public has an interest in avoiding confusion between two companies'
19 products." Internet Specialties West, Inc. v. Milon-DiGiorgio Enters., Inc., 559 F.3d 985, 993
20 n. 5 (9th Cir. 2009).

21 22 2. Damages

23 Plaintiff also seeks actual damages. The Lanham Act provides that a trademark
24 owner may recover: (1) the defendant's profits; (2) any damages sustained by the plaintiff;
25 and (3) the costs of the action. 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

26 Plaintiff claims that it is entitled to recover the Hotel's gross revenue during the period
27 of infringement. However, in a case such as this, the appropriate measure of damages is 28 the amount of royalties Plaintiff would have otherwise received under the Franchise

1 Agreement. See Ramada Franchise Systems, Inc. v. Boychuk, 283 F.Supp.2d 777, 790
2 (N.D.N.Y. 2003), aff'd, 2005 WL 181688, at * 1 (2d Cir. Jan. 25, 2005) (holding that proper
3 measure of damages for franchisee's continued use of franchisor's marks after termination
4 of the franchise agreement was royalties the franchisor would have received during the 5 period of infringement); see also Ramada Franchise Systems, Inc. v. Royal Vale Hospitality
6 of Cincinnati, Inc., 2005 WL435263, at * 16 (N.D. Ill. Feb. 16, 2005) (same).

7 Pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, Plaintiff was entitled to fees in the amount of 8 8% of the monthly gross room revenues. (Baehr Decl. ¶ 7.) In Plaintiff's moving papers, 9 Plaintiff admits that it does not know for certain what Defendants' gross revenue was for the 10 period of infringement. (Pl. Mem. of P. & A. at 11.) However, Plaintiff estimates, based on 11 historic data, that the Hotel likely generated $349,331.51 during the 15 months of infringing
12 activity. Id. Defendants, in their Opposition to Motion for Entry of Default Judgment, 13 attached monthly rental reports for the time period from March 2010 to March 2011 and 14 calculated that the Hotel's gross income for the period from March 2010 to March 2011 was 15 $146,721.08. (Decl. of S. Patel, ¶ 18.) Although Defendants were still searching for the 16 monthly reports for April-June 2011, Defendants estimated that the gross income for that 17 time period was no more than $15,000 to $18,000. (Id. at ¶ 20.) Thus, according to 18 Defendants, the Hotel's sales for the time period in question equaled, at maximum,
19 approximately $164,000.

20 The Court does not find Plaintiff's estimate of Defendants' gross revenue to be 21 reliable, especially given the downturn in the economy in recent years, and therefore utilizes
22 the $164,000 figure, which does appear to be consistent with the documentation submitted
23 by Defendants. Eight percent of $164,000 is $13,120. Therefore, $13,120 is the amount
24 that Plaintiff is entitled to recover to compensate it for lost royalties.

25 Plaintiff also seeks $8,710.36 in outstanding franchise fees, travel agent commission
26 fees and related fees owed by Defendants as of the date of the termination of the Franchise
27 Agreement. (Baehr Decl. ¶ 4.) However, these unpaid fees are not the result of Defendants'
28 infringement and are therefore not recoverable as damages in this action. There was no

1 breach of contract claim.

2 Under § 1117, Plaintiff is entitled to the recovery of costs. The Court awards Plaintiff
3 its costs totaling $1,103.30. (Ex. B. to Lindell Decl.)

4 Plaintiff requests treble damages under § 1117(a), which provides that the court “may 5 enter judgment, according to the circumstances of the case, for any sum above the amount
6 found as actual damages, not exceeding three times such amount.” Section 1117(a) also 7 provides, however, that any damages enhancement “shall constitute compensation and not
8 a penalty.” Accordingly, “although a judge or jury may award up to triple the amount of lost
9 profits, actual damages and costs to compensate a mark holder, the Lanham Act has been 10 construed to expressly forbid the award of damages to punish an infringer.” Skydive
11 Arizona, Inc. v. Quattrocchi, 673 F.3d 1105, 1114 (9th Cir. 2012). In Boychuk, 283 F. Supp.
12 2d at 791, the district court declined to award treble damages because there was no
13 evidence that the amount awarded to compensate the plaintiff for lost royalties was 14 inadequate as compensation for the infringement. Similarly, here, Plaintiff has not provided 15 non-punitive reasons for the award of treble damages.

16 In sum, the Court finds that Plaintiff is entitled to damages in the amount of 17 $14,223.30 ($13,120 for lost royalties and $1,103.30 for costs).

18

19 3. Attorney’s Fees

20 Under the Lanham Act, attorney’s fees may be granted in “exceptional” cases. 15
21 U.S.C. § 1117(a). The Ninth Circuit has held that “exceptional” refers to cases where the 22 defendant’s behavior was malicious, fraudulent, deliberate, or willful. Playboy Enters., Inc.
23 v. Baccarat Clothing Co., 692 F.2d 1272, 1276 (9th Cir. 1982). Here, Defendants’ actions
24 can be characterized as willful because they continued to use Plaintiff’s marks for 15 months
25 after the termination of the Franchise Agreement. Accordingly, an award of attorney’s fee
26 is appropriate.

27 In the Court’s order conditionally setting aside the entry of default, the court found that
28 $7,500 was the appropriate amount to compensate Plaintiff for reasonable attorney’s fees

1 incurred in connection with bringing the motion for default judgment (25 hours at $300 per 2 hour). In its motion for default judgment, Plaintiff requests an additional $10,595 in fees for 3 work performed prior to the motion for default judgment (32.6 hours at $325 per hour). Upon 4 review of the redacted time sheets, the work performed consisted of drafting and filing of the 5 complaint, miscellaneous strategy and analysis, correspondence with Saehan Bank
6 (originally a defendant), drafting a couple of stipulations, and filing requests for entry of 7 default. The Court finds that reasonable compensation for this work is $6,000 (20 hours at 8 the rate of $300 per hour). Thus, the total award of attorney's fees is $13,500.

9
10 IV. CONCLUSION

11 For the reasons discussed above, Defendants' motion to set aside entry of default is 12 DENIED, and Plaintiff's motion for default judgment is GRANTED. The Court grants
13 judgment in favor of Plaintiff Choice Hotels International, Inc., and against defendants
14 Kusum Vali, Inc., Sunil Patel, Tejas Patel, and Navnit Khatri, jointly and severally, in the 15 amount of $27,723.30 ($14,223.30 in damages and $13,500 in attorney's fees). As set forth
16 in the judgment, the Court also permanently enjoins Defendants and their agents, servants,
17 employees, and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them from infringing
18 upon Plaintiff's ECONO LODGE trademarks.

19 IT IS SO ORDERED.

20 DATED: July 9, 2012

21
22 BARRY TED MOSKOWITZ, Chief Judge
23 United States District Court
24
25
26
27
28