Happy New Year. Hope you had a nice holiday. The best resolution is to file for trademark protection.

Jim, can you have someone on your team provide Michael with the guidelines. Thanks.

Bonita,

I had the opportunity to meet you in NY at the marketing tune-up meeting and felt you could assist us with a serious issue that is going on at Google in relation to a diversion of traffic from the search word, "parts" or "parts.com".

Auto Nation is the exclusive fulfillment distributor for this portal and over the past month we have attempted to no avail through your technical support center to remove the "unauthorized" sponsored link that is using "parts.com" a trademark of ours and diverting the traffic to yahoo.

If you could look into this it would be helpful. We have notified Auto Nation of this incident and are attempting to have an amicable resolution without any unnecessary alternative actions being required.

Please let us know if you can be of assistance on this matter or direct us to someone who will return a phone call.

Sincerely,

Michael Lucas
