

1 On September 13, 2013, Plaintiff filed a complaint against Defendant alleging:
2 (1) breach of contract, (2) money had and received, (3) unjust enrichment, and (4) 3 disgorgement. (ECF No. 1.) On May 22, 2014, Plaintiff moved for summary judgment 4 on the breach of contract cause of action. (ECF No. 14.) On July 29, 2014, the Court 5 granted Plaintiff summary judgment on the breach of contract cause of action. (ECF 6 No. 18.)

7 On August 12, 2014, Plaintiff filed this motion for attorney fees and costs 8 incurred: (1) through July 31, 2014; (2) after July 31, 2014, in relation to this motion; 9 and (3) anticipated to be incurred for post-collection work. (ECF No. 19.) On 10 September 4, 2014, Defendant filed an opposition to Plaintiff's motion. (ECF No. 22.)
11 On September 19, 2014, Plaintiff filed a response to Defendant's opposition. (ECF No.
12 23.)

13 III. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

14 On March 13, 2013, the Court appointed Plaintiff as permanent receiver over 15 Western Financial Planning Corporation ("Western") in the main action out of which 16 this action arises: SEC v. Schooler (the "SEC Action"). Sec. and Exch. Comm'n v.
17 Schooler, et al., No. 3:12-cv-2164-GPC-JMA (S.D. Cal. Mar. 13, 2013), ECF No. 174.
18 On May 23, 2013, Plaintiff moved in the SEC Action for authority to pursue 19 enforcement of promissory notes executed in favor of Western by Defendant and other 20 entities. SEC v. Schooler, No. 3:12-cv-2164-GPC-JMA (S.D. Cal. May 23, 2013), ECF 21 No. 192. On August 16, 2013, the Court granted Plaintiff's motion for authorization.
22 SEC v. Schooler, No. 3:12-cv-2164-GPC-JMA, 2013 WL 4548525 (S.D. Cal. Aug. 16, 23 2013), ECF No. 470. On September 13, 2013, Plaintiff instituted three actions pursuant 24 to the Court's order (the "LinMar Lawsuits"). Hebrank v. LinMar Management, Inc., 25 et al., No. 3:13-cv-2179-GPC-JMA (S.D. Cal. Sept. 13, 2014), ECF No. 1; Hebrank v.
26 LinMar III, LLC, et al., No. 3:13-cv-2179-GPC-JMA (S.D. Cal. Sept. 13, 2014), ECF 27 No. 1; Hebrank v. LinMar IV, LLC, et al., No. 3:13-cv-2179-GPC-JMA (S.D. Cal.
28 Sept. 13, 2014), ECF No. 1.

1 Between February 2009 and August 2009, Defendant executed five promissory 2 notes evidencing five loans by Western to Defendant for a total amount of $96,000.
3 (ECF No. 19-1, Exs. A–E) The promissory notes all provide that:

4 Lender may hire or pay someone else to help collect this Note if Borrower 5 does not pay. Borrower also will pay Lender that amount. This includes, 6 subject to any limits under applicable law, Lender’s attorneys’ fees and 7 Lender’s legal expenses whether or not there is a lawsuit, including 8 attorneys’ fees and legal expenses for bankruptcy proceedings (including 9 efforts to modify or vacate any automatic state or injunctions), appeals, 10 and any anticipated post-judgment collection services. Borrower will pay 11 any court costs, in addition to all other sums provided by law.
12 (Id. ¶ 8.) Further, the promissory notes all state that they are “governed by and 13 construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California.” (Id. ¶ 9.) On February 14 12, 2013, Plaintiff issued a demand to Defendant for full repayment of the loan. (ECF 15 No. 1, ¶ 13.) After Plaintiff issued the demand, the parties engaged in document 16 production and settlement negotiations. (Id. ¶¶ 13–14.)

17 IV. LEGAL STANDARD

18 A. Attorney Fees

19 California Civil Code § 1717 allows for the recovery of attorney fees and costs 20 incurred to enforce the contract where the contract specifically provides for such 21 recovery. CAL. CIV. CODE § 1717; PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler, 997 P.2d 511, 515 22 (Cal. 2000). “[T]he trial court has broad authority to determine the amount of a 23 reasonable fee.” PLCM Group, 997 P.2d at 515. First, the trial court must determine 24 the “lodestar”: “the number of hours reasonably expended multiplied by the reasonable 25 hourly rate.” Id. (citation omitted). The reasonable hourly rate is the prevailing hourly 26 rate “in the community for similar work.” Id. In federal cases, the relevant legal 27 community is “the forum in which the district court sits.” Camacho v. Bridgeport Fin., 28 Inc., 523 F.3d 973, 979 (9th Cir.2008).

29 The party seeking an award of attorney fees bears the burden of proving that the 30 fees it seeks are reasonable. Yenidunya Invs., Ltd. v. Magnum Seeds, Inc., No.
31 2:11-cv-01787-WBS-CKD, 2012 WL 538263, at *7 (E.D. Cal. Feb. 17, 2012), aff’d, 32 562 Fed. Appx. 560 (9th Cir. 2014) (citations omitted). The party opposing an award

1 of attorney fees has the “burden of rebuttal” which requires submitting evidence 2 “challenging the accuracy and reasonableness of the hours charged or the facts 3 asserted.” Gates v. Deukmejian, 987 F.2d 1392, 1397–98 (9th Cir. 1992) (citations 4 omitted). If the party seeking an award of attorney fees fails to adequately document 5 the hours or the hours are deemed excessive, the Court may reduce the award.
6 Chalmers v. City of Los Angeles, 796 F.2d 1205, 1210 (9th Cir. 1986) opinion 7 amended on denial of reh’g, 808 F.2d 1373 (9th Cir. 1987).

8 B. Costs

9 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54 allows a prevailing party to recover litigation 10 costs. FED. R. CIV. P. 54(d)(1). Civil Local Rule 54.1 allows for the recovery of various 11 additional costs. CivLR 54.1.

12 C. Judicial Notice

13 A court may take notice of undisputed “matters of public record” subject to 14 judicial notice. Lee v. City of Los Angeles, 250 F.3d 668, 688–89 (9th Cir. 2001) 15 (citing FED. R. EVID. 201; MGIC Indem. Corp. v. Weisman, 803 F.2d 500, 504 (9th Cir.
16 1986)). Under Federal Rule of Evidence 201, a district court may take notice of facts 17 not subject to reasonable dispute that are capable of accurate and ready determination 18 by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned. FED. R. EVID.
19 201(b); see also Lee, 250 F.3d at 689.

20 V. DISCUSSION

21 A. Judicial Notice

22 Defendant seeks judicial notice of the three dockets and case files for the SEC 23 Action and the two other LinMar Lawsuits. (ECF No. 22, at 4 n.1.) Defendant’s request 24 for judicial notice is properly noticeable. The docket and case files in a federal court 25 case are matters of public record and are capable of accurate and ready determination.
26 Finding the dockets and case files of the SEC Action and two other LinMar Lawsuits 27 relevant, the Court takes judicial notice of all three dockets and case files.

28 //

1 B. Attorney Fees

2 Plaintiff argues that he is entitled to $35,910.30 in attorney fees. (ECF No. 19, 3 at 6.) Defendant does not challenge that Plaintiff should be awarded attorney fees, but 4 does challenge the specific amount Plaintiff proposes as unreasonable. (See ECF No.
5 22, at 1–2.) As Plaintiff has prevailed on his breach of contract claim against Defendant 6 and those contracts provide for attorney fees, the Court finds that Plaintiff is entitled 7 to an award of attorney fees for work done through this motion and any anticipated 8 post-judgment collection work.

9 Because of the similarity of the three LinMar Lawsuits, Plaintiff arrives at the 10 $35,910.30 figure by calculating all of the attorney fees for the three suits and dividing 11 by three. (ECF No. 19, at 1–2.) Plaintiff breaks down the hourly rates he is requesting 12 for work done through July 31, 2014, $29,532.00, as follows:

- 13 1. $585–$616.50 per hour for 7.0 hours by partner David Zaro;
- 14 2. $418.50–$445.50 per hour for 98.30 hours by senior associate Ted Fates;
- 15 3. $351 per hour for 37.30 hours by junior associate Josi Swonetz;
- 16 4. $265.50–$297 per hour for 82.80 hours by junior associate Kim Bui;
- 17 5. $279 per hour for 6.6 hours by junior associate Alana Thorbourne;
- 18 6. $238.50 per hour for 4.9 hours by paralegal Sara Cramton; and
- 19 7. $279 per hour for 0.9 hours by paralegal Rhonda Reid.

20 (ECF No. 19-2 ¶¶ 5–9.) Plaintiff requests approximately 106 hours for preparing the 21 partial summary judgment motions and reply papers and approximately 132 hours for 22 all other work done through July 31, 2014. (Id. ¶ 9; ECF No. 19-2, Ex. A.) Plaintiff 23 estimates the attorney fees for preparing this motion and its response and for 24 anticipated post-judgment collection work at $6,378.30. (ECF No. 19-2 ¶ 10.)

25 Defendant argues that Plaintiff’s attorney fees amount is unreasonable for two 26 reasons: (1) because of the settlement negotiations between the parties, and (2) because 27 the LinMar Lawsuits are simple and involve “pleadings, motions, and discovery” that 28 are “straightforward” and “heavily duplicative.” (ECF No. 22, at 2–4.)

1 Defendant has provided no authority for its contention that the alleged 2 unreasonableness of Plaintiff's settlement offer or Plaintiff's rejection of Defendant's 3 settlement offer justifies reducing an award of attorney fees and costs. Moreover, courts 4 in this circuit and in others have found that rejections of settlement offers do not justify 5 reducing an award of attorney fees and costs. See, e.g., Ortiz v. Regan, 980 F.2d 138, 6 at 140 (2d Cir. 1992); Joe Hand Promotions, Inc. v. Albright, No. 2:11-cv-2260-WBS-7 CMK, 2013 WL 4094403, at *5 (E.D. Cal. Aug. 13, 2013); Mformation Techs., Inc.
8 v. Research in Motion Ltd., No. 08-cv-4990-EMC, 2012 WL 6025746, at *2 (N.D. Cal.
9 Dec. 4, 2012). Accordingly, the Court finds that the settlement negotiations between 10 the parties does not serve to reduce Plaintiff's award of attorney fees and costs.

11 In support of his attorney fee rates, Plaintiff cites Hess v. Ramona Unified 12 School District, No. 3:07-cv-0049-W-CAB, 2008 WL 5381243, at *3 (S.D. Cal. Dec.
13 19, 2008), and Brighton Collectibles, Inc. v. Coldwater Creek Inc., No. 3:06-cv-1848-14 H-POR, 2009 WL 160235, at *4 (S.D. Cal. Jan. 20, 2009). In Hess, the court found 15 rates of $250–$500 for attorneys and $125 for paralegals reasonable. 2008 WL 16 5381243, at *3. In Brighton Collectibles, the court found rates of $125–$625 for 17 attorneys and $90–210 for paralegals reasonable. 2009 WL 160235, at *4. Plaintiff's 18 highest rates are $616.50 for David Zaro, a partner with 27 years of litigation 19 experience and $445.50 for Ted Fates, a senior associate with 10 years of litigation 20 experience. (ECF No. 19-2 ¶ 6.) Plaintiff proposes rates of $279–$351 for three junior 21 associates, and $238.50–$279 for two paralegals with over 20 years of experience. (Id.) 22 Plaintiff's overall blended rate is $372.57. (Id. ¶ 5.) In light of the amounts charged by 23 other attorneys and paralegals of similar skill and experience in the Southern District 24 of California, the Court finds that Plaintiff's proposed rates are reasonable.

25 For work done through July 31, 2014, Plaintiff proposes a total of 237.8 attorney 26 and paralegal hours worked on the LinMar Lawsuits through July 31, 2014. (ECF No.
27 19-2 ¶ 5.) This includes a demand letter, a document subpoena, Plaintiff's motion for 28 authority in the SEC Action, a motion for summary judgment, and settlement

1 negotiations, among other work. (Id. ¶ 9.) While Defendant is correct that much of the 2 work performed by Plaintiff’s attorneys and paralegals in the three LinMar Lawsuits 3 is similar, Plaintiff’s attorneys and paralegals must still complete the work for three 4 lawsuits that involve three different loans given to three different entities.

5       Following a thorough review of Plaintiff’s summary of fees incurred relating to 6 the three LinMar lawsuits, the Court finds that approximately 132 attorney and 7 paralegal hours is reasonable for all of the work other than the summary judgment 8 motions. However, the Court finds the approximately 106 hours spent on the partial 9 summary judgment motions and replies to be excessive. The partial summary judgment 10 motions contain approximately 8 pages of points and authorities, 6 pages of facts, and 11 6 pages of declaration. (See, e.g., ECF Nos. 14-1, 14-2, 14-3, 14-4.) The replies in 12 support of the partial summary judgment motions contain approximately 8 pages of 13 legal argument and responses to approximately 13 material facts. (See, e.g., ECF Nos.
14 17, 17-1.) Plaintiff contends that spending approximately 66 hours on the motions and 15 40 hours on the replies is reasonable. (See ECF No. 19-2, Ex. A.) Plaintiff’s summary 16 judgment motions were on straightforward breach of contract causes of action with 17 minimal facts. The facts underlying the three motions were very similar and the law for 18 all three was the same. In light of the motions’ simplicity and brevity, spending over 19 60 hours drafting three nearly identical motions is excessive. See Chalmers, 796 F.2d 20 at 1211 (instructing that district courts are to consider the “novelty or the difficulty of 21 the question presented”). The Court finds that a more reasonable total for the motions 22 would be approximately 46 hours preparing the motions and 40 hours preparing the 23 replies. See id. at 1210. Accordingly, the Court reduces the amount proposed by 24 Plaintiff by 20 hours at the blended rate of $372.57, for a total reduction of $7,451.40 25 which, divided across the three LinMar lawsuits, results in a reduction of $2,483.80 for 26 this case. See, e.g., Cataphora Inc. v. Parker, 848 F. Supp. 2d 1064, 1070–71 (N.D. Cal.
27 2012) (reducing hours deemed excessive); Marshall v. Kirby, No. 3:07-cv-0222-RAM, 28 2010 WL 4923486, at *11–12 (D. Nev. Nov. 29, 2010) (same). For work done through 1 July 31, 2014, the Court awards a total of $27,038.20 in attorney fees for this case.

2 For work done after July 31, 2014, Plaintiff does not include a detailed hours 3 breakdown and instead makes vague references to approximate hour numbers that fails 4 to include hourly rates. (See ECF No. 19-2 ¶ 10.) Plaintiff knew, at the time he 5 submitted his reply brief, the number of hours worked by his attorneys and paralegals 6 on this motion, yet has not included such a breakdown in his reply brief. For post-7 judgment collection work, Plaintiff again makes vague references to approximate hour 8 numbers and fails to include hourly rates. (See id.)

9 The Court finds that Plaintiff has failed to provide an adequately detailed 10 breakdown of hourly rates and time spent on this motion, and failed to provide an 11 adequately detailed breakdown of hourly rates and time anticipated for post-judgment 12 collection work. The Court hereby requires that Plaintiff submit supplemental briefing 13 breaking down the attorney fees spent on this motion after July 31, 2014, and breaking 14 down any anticipated post-judgment collection work. As Plaintiff failed to include a 15 more detailed breakdown in his reply brief—when Plaintiff knew the exact amount 16 spent on this motion—the breakdown in Plaintiff’s supplemental brief shall not include 17 any time spent on the supplemental brief.

18 C. Costs

19 Plaintiff argues that he is entitled to $400 in costs, the filing fees paid in this 20 case. (ECF No. 19, at 10.) Defendant does not challenge that Plaintiff is entitled to 21 costs. As Plaintiff has prevailed on his breach of contract claim against Defendant and 22 those contracts provide for costs, the Court finds that Plaintiff is entitled to $400 in 23 costs.

24 VI. CONCLUSION AND ORDER

25 For the reasons stated above, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

- 26 1. Plaintiff’s Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs, (ECF No. 19), is 27 DENIED as to the proposed $29,532.00 in attorney fees incurred through 28 July 31, 2014, and $6,378.30 in attorney fees for work done and
