Hangouts ★★★★★
by Hillary Caine

I think this app is absolutely amazing. It lets me talk to my friends who live in different towns. I can message them while they're at school and I can video chat with them on weekends and after they get home from school. Most of my friends live in places like Harpswell or Portland so it makes it super easy for me to talk to any of my friends who have ...More

SPECTACULAR ; INCREDIBLE ; MOST USED APP EVERRRR ★★★★★

This amazing app is practically like texting (since it's on your phone) except with no charge internationally!!! I have a good friend in England who's hard to reach and this has helped things with him so much! One great thing is that it shows if they are online or not on the device so if you're wondering why they haven't texted you back- it's because ...More

Does the job. Now how about a desktop app? ★★★★★

How retarded would it be if, to use this, you had to have the chrome app open? Well that's how it is on the desktop. I usually have chrome open on my desktop, but the google acct I use for chat is different from the main one I use for email. And besides, who wants that chat window clogging up a nice clean gmail window when you have 2 or more ...More

Badges wrong, crashes on every load ★ by Adam J Hamilton

Before the last update, the badge counts didn't update unless you returned to the main menu after reading the chat. After the latest update it's permanently stuck at "1" and doesn't update in any circumstances. Signing out doesn't help.

Every single time I close the app and reopen it, it returns to the crash recovery screen now.

Don't they test this at all before releasing it? Almost every major feature is broken in some way, and its not as though its trying to do something hard.

There are thousands of chat apps. STAY AWAY from this one they don't care about it enough to test it carefully, so I doubt they'll keep working on it for long before Google just drops it like they have with most of their other apps.

Embarrassing ★
by MLHickey

This app is an embarrassment. The update still didn't fix the badge issue. With all the money google has they can't spend 1 week on this app to make it reflect decently on the company?

Notifications still not working for iPhone ★★
by Timjthomas

Notifications still not working properly for iPhone. Badge app number is always 3.

Hm.

by Brad Hilts

Still no iOS7 keyboard? :(

The status and device additions are great.

It's decent

by ALC246

Still no support for iOS 7 interface. Great app in theory but the lag for refreshing in conversation is such a turn off. I'll get notifications, open the conversation, and have a blank conversation for a good minute before the conversation loads. I thought it was a wireless issue at first but I've been experimenting (using my school's wireless which is pretty reliable and has strong signal and using my home wireless) but it seems to come off more as a buggy issue with the app. Maybe an update will do it justice.

Overall decent app because of the multiple people conversations allowed but my other apps like Talakatone do a better job of getting the message to me as it comes and loading conversations.

Needs to use iOS 7 style keyboards

by Andregriffin

Would be nice if Hangouts fully used iOS 7 styling.

Probably the worst app on my iPhone.
by iPhone User #5817

Similar to its counterpart on desktop, Hangouts app is a half-baked POS, slapped together by Google in the wake of them banning 3rd-party applications. Unstable, lacking features and buggy. I wish I didn't have to use it.

Worthless Forced Sync Update ★
by Cathylina

The update makes you automatically sync all of your accounts on all Google apps. Ugh! This is so frustrating because I like using my Gmail app for school and my Hangouts app for personal use. I hate that Google is making this shift on the computer and on the phone and well everywhere else. They try to control everything and its so annoying. I hate Google for doing this! I've been saying it for a couple years now but it's getting worse. Ugh! I'm so ready to stop using it. Give us the option to sign in to one app without forcing us to sign into another!

Google: You're like an overly attached girlfriend that won't leave me alone. You're like a parent who wants to have your two cents in everything I do. You're like the ex wife that wants a piece of everything. You're like the child who won't leave home. You're like the friend who keeps mooching off me. You're my worst nightmare. I could go on but for now this rant is over...that is all.

Sensible improvement, great ★★★★★
by Xylophagous

Congrats, this is an excellent transfiguration of the previous user interface, I like it, functional, easy to use, with the elegance of simplicity, great job.

One request that I have made many many times before: please, for security's sake, add the feature of show/hide a preview of the message in the Lock Screen, like the "Show Preview" option of Messages. For me that represents the fifth star

Thanks

Tremendous Improvement ★★★★★
by VicCube

The app isn't perfect yet. But judging from the improvement it has made since the previous version, it's definitely worth 5-star!!

Speed is 10 times faster and UI isn't so glitchy anymore. Update now.
