Martin v. Harrinston et al

Nos. 22, 24.) Plaintiff indicates that he needs a copy of the SAC for purposes of quoting from it in his appellate brief. However, it is not clear why Plaintiff does not have a copy of his own pleading or why the Court should provide a copy at government expense.

Generally, a plaintiff's IFP status does not authorize the court to "to commit federal monies for payment of the necessary expenses in a civil suit brought by an indigent litigant." Tabron v. Grace, 6 F.3d 147, 158-59 (3d Cir. 1993); see also United States v. MacCollom, 426 U.S. 317, 321 (1976) (discussing free transcripts and noting the established rule that "expenditure of public funds is proper only when authorized by Congress"); Tedder v. Odel, 890 F.2d 210, 211-12 (9th Cir. 1989) (finding 28 U.S.C. § 1915 does not waive payment of indigent's witness fees). It appears that Plaintiff is simply attempting to obtain a free copy of his own document without any explanation why he should not pay for the copy or why he did not retain a copy of his own pleading. However, Plaintiff is not entitled to "have documents copied and returned to him at government expense." In re Richard, 914 F.2d 1526, 1527 (6th Cir. 1990).

Plaintiff's Motion is DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
