Case No.: 16cv929 JM (NLS)

ORDER GRANTING JOINT MOTION TO CONTINUE DATE OF
MANDATORY SETTLEMENT
CONFERENCE

[ECF No. 117]

20 By joint motion, the parties request that the Court continue the Mandatory
21 Settlement Conference (“MSC”) currently scheduled for April 25, 2018 to May 14, 2018,
22 as the royalty auditor does not anticipate completing his report until April 27, 2018. ECF
23 No. 117. The Court already previously rescheduled the MSC due to delays in completing 24 the audit. See ECF No. 111. Regardless, because the Court continues to agree that 25 review of the final audit report is a necessary prerequisite to fruitful settlement
26 discussions, the joint motion is GRANTED. However, the Court has a conflict with the 27 parties’ proposed date of May 14 and the parties have not yet agreed upon an alternate
28 date when the Court is available. Thus, the MSC hereby is VACATED, to be reset for a

1 future date. The parties are directed to notify Chambers once they agree upon an
2 alternate date and the Court will reset the MSC at that time.

3 IT IS SO ORDERED.
