11 KYLE ROBERT JAMES,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14 BARBARA LEE, et al.,

15 Defendants.

Case No.: 16-cv-01592-AJB-JLB

ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF’S:

(1) MOTION FOR WRITTEN DEPOSITIONS; AND

(2) MOTION TO COMPEL

[ECF Nos. 121, 125]

18 Before the Court is Plaintiff Kyle Robert James’ “Application for Order Authorizing 19 Commencement of Written Depositions of Defendant Witness[es]” (“Motion for Written 20 Depositions”). (ECF No. 121.) Also before the Court is Plaintiff’s “Motion to Compel[] 21 Production of Documents After Rejected Request” (“Motion to Compel”) against 22 Defendants Barbara Lee and Mark Kania. (ECF No. 125.) Plaintiff, a state prisoner
23 proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, commenced this action pursuant to the Civil 24 Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

25 For the reasons set forth below, the Court DENIES Plaintiff’s Motion for Written 26 Depositions without prejudice and DENIES Plaintiff’s Motion to Compel as moot and as 27 premature.

28 ///

1 I. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

2 On December 26, 2017, Plaintiff filed a Fourth Amended Complaint asserting claims
3 against several defendants.¹ (ECF No. 43 at 2–6.) On February 12, 2018, Judge Battaglia
4 dismissed several claims and defendants, leaving only Plaintiff’s: (1) excessive force
5 claims against Defendants Kania, John Doe San Diego County Jail Deputies, and John/Jane
6 Doe Lieutenant; and (2) medical care claims against Defendants Lee and Blake. (ECF No.
7 50 at 10.)

8 On March 26, 2018, Defendants Lee and Kania filed a Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff’s
9 deliberate indifference claims against Defendant Lee and to strike parts of Plaintiff’s
10 Fourth Amended Complaint. (ECF No. 64.)

11 On February 22, 2019, Judge Battaglia adopted the Court’s Report and 12 Recommendation on Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss and dismissed Plaintiff’s Fourteenth 13 Amendment claim against Defendant Lee without prejudice and with leave to amend and 14 Plaintiff’s Eighth Amendment claim against Defendant Lee with prejudice. (ECF No. 109
15 at 2–3.) Judge Battaglia set March 31, 2019, as the deadline for Plaintiff to file a Fifth 16 Amended Complaint. (Id. at 3.) Judge Battaglia also denied Defendants’ Motion to Strike.
17 (Id.)

18 On March 25, 2019, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Extension of Time to file a Fifth 19 Amended Complaint. (ECF No. 113.) Judge Battaglia granted Plaintiff’s request and 20 provided Plaintiff until June 3, 2019, to file a Fifth Amended Complaint. (ECF No. 116.)

21 To date, Plaintiff has not filed a Fifth Amended Complaint nor has any defendant
22 answered Plaintiff’s Fourth Amended Complaint.

23 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

24 Plaintiff’s Fourth Amended Complaint revolves around a precipitating incident that 25 allegedly occurred on July 3, 2014, as well as the incident’s aftermath. Plaintiff alleges 26

27
28 ¹ The procedural background regarding Plaintiff’s First through Third Amended Complaints is set forth in the Court’s Report and Recommendation on Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss. (ECF No. 96 at 2–3.)

1 that on July 3, he was transferred from George Bailey Detention Facility (“GBDF”) to the 2 San Diego County Jail (“SDCJ”) and that, to effect this transfer, he was “hog-tie[d] naked”
3 as punishment for possessing handcuff keys. (ECF No. 43 at 7.) Prior to being transported,
4 Plaintiff alleges that he was stripped naked, handcuffed behind the back, and strapped to a
5 gurney facedown. (Id. at 7–9.) Plaintiff alleges that he told deputies that “the cuffs were 6 too tight,” that the cuffs caused him pain for an hour, that he cried, and that Defendant
7 Kania nevertheless refused to permit deputies to loosen the cuffs. (Id. at 7.) Plaintiff
8 alleges that the handcuffs and other restraint devices used during this incident caused him
9 to suffer severe pain in his hands, wrists, forearms, and left shoulder. (Id.) Plaintiff further
10 alleges that Defendant Kania refused to dress Plaintiff before six deputies carried him 11 outside to be transferred “like a naked hogtied pig on it[s] way to be barbecued.” (Id. at 12 9.)

13 When Plaintiff arrived at SDCJ, Plaintiff claims that Defendant Kania told SDCJ
14 deputies that Plaintiff was “violent and an escape risk.” (Id. at 10.) Plaintiff states that he 15 was required to wear leg and waist chains while in the SDCJ Day Room “as punishment.”
16 (See id. at 31.) Plaintiff claims that Defendant Lee—a medical administrator for the 17 Sheriff’s Department—“acted with deliberate indifference” to Plaintiff’s complaints of 18 “constant pain and injury” caused by the use of the leg and waist chains. (Id. at 3, 11.)
19 Plaintiff further alleges that he suffered multiple injuries and that SDCJ officials “with the 20 help of . . . Doctor Blake attempted to cover-up this injury out of fear of being sued.” (Id.
21 at 15.)

22 III. MOTION FOR WRITTEN DEPOSITIONS

23 On May 9, 2019, Plaintiff constructively filed a Motion for Written Depositions
24 wherein he appears to seek leave of Court to: (1) conduct written depositions; and (2)
25 conduct more than ten depositions. (ECF No. 121 at 3.) Defendants oppose Plaintiff’s
26 motion. (ECF No. 123.)

28 ///

1 A. Legal Standards

2 1. Depositions by Written Question

3 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 31 governs depositions by written questions.
4 Pursuant to Rule 31, four circumstances exist where a party must obtain leave of court to 5 conduct depositions by written questions:

6 (2) With Leave. A party must obtain leave of court, and the court must 7 grant leave to the extent consistent with Rule 26(b)(1) and (2):

8 (A) if the parties have not stipulated to the deposition and:

9 (i) the deposition would result in more than 10 depositions being 10 taken under this rule or Rule 30 by the plaintiffs, or by the defendants,
11 or by the third-party defendants;

12 (ii) the deponent has already been deposed in the case; or

13 (iii) the party seeks to take a deposition before the time specified 14 in Rule 26(d); or

(B) if the deponent is confined in prison.

15 Fed. R. Civ. P. 31(a)(2)(A)–(B).

16 2. Leave to Conduct More Than Ten Depositions

17 When considering a motion for leave to take more than ten depositions, the Court
18 must grant leave to the extent consistent with Rule 26(b)(1) and (2). Fed. R. Civ. P.
19 31(a)(2). Rule 26(b)(2)(C) provides that the court must limit the extent of discovery if it 20 determines that:

21 (i) the discovery is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, or can be obtained
22 from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less 23 expensive;

24 (ii) the party seeking discovery has had ample opportunity to obtain the 25 information by discovery in the action; or

26 (iii) the proposed discovery is outside the scope permitted by Rule 26(b)(1).

27 Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2)(C)(i)–(iii).

28 In addition, a party seeking more than ten depositions should make a “particularized showing” of the need for additional depositions. Kaseberg v. Conaco, LLC, Case No.: 15-

1 cv-01637-JLS (DHB), 2016 WL 8729927, at *3 (S.D. Cal Aug. 19, 2016); accord Brooks
2 v. Motsenbocker Advanced Devs., Inc., Civil No. 07cv773 BTM (NLS), 2008 WL
3 4480376, at *1 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 29, 2008). Ordinarily, a party should “exhaust their allowed
4 number of depositions before making a request for additional depositions.” Kaseberg,
5 2016 WL 8729927, at *3; see also Smith v. Ardew Wood Prods., Ltd., No. C07–5641 FDB,
6 2008 WL 4837216, at *1 (W.D. Wash. Nov. 6, 2008) (“Rule 30(a)(2)(A) clearly 7 contemplates that a party has already taken ten depositions before a motion is filed seeking 8 leave of court for a proposed deposition that would result in more than ten depositions 9 being taken under this rule.”).

10 B. Discussion

11 In his motion, Plaintiff appears to request both leave to take written depositions and 12 leave to conduct more than ten depositions.² (See ECF No. 121 at 1–4.) Plaintiff states 13 that he “has no funds or monetary assets to pay professionals to take the depositions,” and 14 “written depositions of the witnesses in the case [are] necessary to provide the Court [with]
15 enough evidence to proceed to trial.” (Id. at 2.) Plaintiff also contends that “depositions 16 by written questions provide an affordable, alternative means of discovery for parties . . .
17 who do not wish to incur the high cost of a full oral deposition.” (Id. at 3.)

18 Defendants oppose Plaintiff’s motion, arguing that: (1) leave of court is not required
19 to conduct written depositions; (2) Plaintiff did not follow the procedural requirements set 20 forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 31; and (3) Plaintiff failed to demonstrate his 21 ability to pay deposition-related costs. (ECF No. 123 at 2.)

22 With respect to Plaintiff’s request to take depositions by written questions, leave of 23 Court is not required to depose any person except for those incarcerated or previously 24 deposed. Fed. R. Civ. P. 31(a)(2)(A)(ii), (B). The Court, however, cannot determine at 25

27 ² Plaintiff also requests from Defendants “the names and identities of all witnesses present during the [July 28 3, 2014] and [July 23, 2014] incidents which happened at GBDF and SDCJ” in a separate attachment.
(ECF No. 121 at 7.) The Court addresses these concerns in § IV below.

1 this time whether leave of Court is necessary because Plaintiff does not identify the 2 individuals that he desires to depose.³ Therefore, to the extent Plaintiff is currently 3 requesting to depose incarcerated witnesses, Plaintiff’s request is DENIED without
4 prejudice. If Plaintiff later identifies incarcerated witnesses that he wishes to depose,
5 Plaintiff may refile his request at that time.

6 To the extent Plaintiff desires to depose non-incarcerated individuals, leave of court
7 is not required. An incarcerated plaintiff not invoking one of the Rule 31(a)(2) exceptions
8 is permitted “to conduct discovery while incarcerated, without leave of the Court, as long 9 as the plaintiff complies with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the local rules, and 10 applicable prison regulations.” Merchant v. Lopez, No. 09cv856-WQH-NLS, 2010 WL
11 1948922, at *2 (S.D. Cal. May 12, 2010).

12 Plaintiff must, however, bear the costs of any deposition he seeks to take in this 13 matter. His in forma pauperis status “does not authorize or require federal courts to finance 14 or subsidize a civil action by paying fees or other costs associated with the litigation.”
15 Arellano v. Hodge, Case No.: 14-cv-590 JLS (JLB), 2018 WL 637854, at *3 (S.D. Cal.
16 Jan. 30, 2018). Nor does this status entitle him “to utilize defendants’ resources for [a]
17 deposition.” Cuff v. Harris, No. 2:16-cv-1999 MCE DB P, 2018 WL 2441592, at *1 (E.D.
18 Cal. May 31, 2018). Plaintiff is thus financially responsible for procuring a deposition 19 officer to transcribe the witnesses’ testimony, for notice and delivery of the questions, and 20 for filing of the deposition. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 31.

21 With respect to Plaintiff’s request to take more than ten depositions, Plaintiff has not
22 made a particularized showing of the need for more than ten depositions. Plaintiff relies
23 on a generalized basis that “the witnesses in this case are more than ten in number.” (ECF 24 No. 121 at 3.) Plaintiff does not, however, explain why the testimony of more than ten 25

27 ³ Plaintiff’s motion states that he does not know the identities of the witnesses he wishes to depose and is 28 waiting for defense counsel to “provide[] a full list of all individuals who were present and involved with the . . . entire incident.” (ECF No. 121 at 1.) As previously stated, the Court addresses these concerns in § IV below.

1 witnesses is necessary to support his claims. See Smith, 2008 WL 4837216, at *1 (“The
2 number of potential witnesses and the mere possibility that they may favor the [p]laintiff
3 does not justify deposing every one. Many of them may duplicate each other’s
4 testimony.”). Without having yet conducted any depositions, Plaintiff at this point can 5 only speculate that that he will require testimony from more than ten witnesses.

6 Plaintiff’s request to conduct more than ten depositions is therefore DENIED
7 without prejudice. The Court will not entertain any additional motions from Plaintiff
8 requesting leave to conduct more than ten depositions unless Plaintiff has already reached 9 the ten-deposition limit.

10 IV. MOTION TO COMPEL

11 On June 14, 2019, Plaintiff constructively filed a Motion to Compel seeking to 12 compel Defendants to produce: (1) “the identities of the deputies who were ordered to 13 cover [him] with the sheet”; (2) “the identities of the deputies who carried [him] outside 14 naked; (3) “the . . . two deputies seen on camera checking the handcuffs”; (3) “the medical 15 staff present during the incident”; and (4) “any other witnesses/deputies who were present
16 to hear any statements made by other witnesses [or himself].” (ECF No. 125 at 1–2.)

17 Defendants oppose Plaintiff’s motion and argue that it is both moot and premature.
18 (ECF No. 126.)

19 A. Legal Standard

20 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37 enables a party seeking discovery to bring a 21 motion to compel responses to discovery. Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(3)(B). However, when a 22 party has already provided the relief sought in the moving party’s motion to compel, the 23 court may deny the motion to compel as moot. See, e.g., Jafari v. F.D.I.C., Civil No.
24 12cv2982 LAB (RBB), 2014 WL 7176460, at *4 (S.D. Cal. Dec. 5, 2014) (“Because the 25 relief sought by the [p]laintiffs in their motion to compel has been provided, the [m]otion
26 is [denied] as moot.”); Robinson v. Adams, No. 1:08–cv–001380–AWI–BAM PC, 2013 27 WL 1966804, at *2 (E.D. Cal. May 13, 2013) (“[T]he Court finds that [p]laintiff has 28

1 received the discovery responses and his motion to compel is no longer necessary.
2 Accordingly, [p]laintiff’s motion to compel . . . shall be denied as moot.”).

3 B. Discussion

4 As stated above, Plaintiff seeks to compel: (1) “the identities of the deputies who 5 were ordered to cover [him] with the sheet”; (2) “the identities of the deputies who carried 6 [him] outside naked; (3) “the . . . two deputies seen on camera checking the handcuffs”;
7 (3) “the medical staff present during the incident”; and (4) “any other witnesses/deputies
8 who were present to hear any statements made by other witnesses [or himself].” (ECF No.
9 125 at 1–2.) Plaintiff states that he “served his requests” on April 30, 2019, and “has in 10 good faith confer[r]ed/attempted to confer[] with Attorney Robert Ortiz in an effort to 11 secure disclosure without court action.” (Id. at 2.) Plaintiff further contends that he has 12 “made numerous formal and informal requests pursuant to . . . Rule 34(a)” but “county
13 counsel failed to respond after five[-]weeks time.” (Id. at 5.)

14 In response to Plaintiff’s motion, Defendants argue that: (1) “incident reports
15 identifying relevant jail deputies have already been produced to Plaintiff and the identities
16 of deputies with knowledge of the incident or involved in the incident were recently
17 produced to Plaintiff”; and (2) “Plaintiff never served interrogatories seeking the identities
18 of the long list of jail staff he now seeks to compel.” (ECF No. 126 at 1.)

19 Plaintiff’s Interrogatory No. 9 requests the names of “the deputies and or sworn staff
20 present and or assigned to the ‘Special Detail’ that were at the GBDF Processing Area on 21 [July 3, 2014] between 11am and . . . up to the time inmate Kyle James was transported to 22 [SDCJ].” (Id. at 6.) Defendants attached a copy of their June 19, 2019 supplemental 23 response to Interrogatory No. 9 to their opposition, which lists seven individuals who 24 Defendants believe “have knowledge of or were involved in the incident giving rise to 25 Plaintiff’s lawsuit.” (Id. at 6–7.) Therefore, to the extent Plaintiff’s Interrogatory No. 9
26 covers the identification of the witnesses he seeks in the instant motion (see ECF No. 125 27 at 1–2), Plaintiff’s Motion to Compel is DENIED as moot. To the extent Plaintiff also 28 seeks to compel the identification of witnesses not requested by Interrogatory No. 9, or any

1 other propounded discovery requests, Plaintiff's Motion to Compel is DENIED as
2 premature. If Plaintiff has in fact propounded other discovery requests which would cover
3 the additional witnesses Plaintiff seeks here, he fails to sufficiently allege such.

4 V. CONCLUSION

5 For the foregoing reasons, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion for Written
6 Depositions without prejudice (ECF No. 121) and DENIES Plaintiff's Motion to Compel
7 as moot and as premature (ECF No. 125).

8 IT IS SO ORDERED.
