Case No.: 18-CV-361 JLS (DEB)

ORDER REQUIRING PARTIES TO MEET AND CONFER REGARDING
PRETRIAL ISSUES AND TO FILE A PROPOSED SCHEDULE OF PRETRIAL DATES AND DEADLINES

(ECF Nos. 267–70)

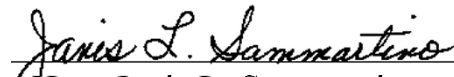

18
19 In a January 5, 2023 Order, the Court ordered the Parties to meet and confer
20 concerning pretrial issues and file a list of proposed pretrial dates on or before February
21 10, 2023. See ECF No. 267 at 8. On January 23, 2023, Plaintiff Mychal Andra Reed filed
22 a petition for writ of mandamus in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit,
23 arguing that this Court abused its discretion in refusing to recuse from his case. See
24 generally ECF No. 269. On January 24, 2023, Defendant E. Zendejas filed Defendant’s
25 Proposed Schedule of Pretrial Dates and Deadlines (“Def.’s Proposed Sched.,” ECF No.
26 268). Defendant’s Proposed Schedule indicated that the Parties had met and conferred 27 telephonically on January 24, 2023, at which time Plaintiff conveyed his belief “that we
28 cannot proceed in this matter until the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals rules on his petition

1 for a writ of mandate.” Id. at 1–2. On February 27, 2023, a panel of the Ninth Circuit
2 denied Plaintiff’s petition. See ECF No. 270.

3 Accordingly, the Court once more ORDERS the Parties to meet and confer
4 concerning pretrial issues and to file a list of proposed pretrial dates and deadlines on or
5 before March 13, 2023. Should Plaintiff again refuse to participate meaningfully in this
6 process with Defendant, Defendant may file her own list of proposed pretrial dates and
7 deadlines for the Court’s consideration.

8 IT IS SO ORDERED.
