The Court awarded the subject fees and expenses in its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law on Plaintiffs' Motion for Award of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses to Settlement Class Counsel (Doc. No. 160). Pursuant to that award and the terms of the Colorado Class Settlement Agreement, the Settling Defendants have deposited the fee-and-expense award into an escrow account established with U.S. Bank in New York. The allocation of the fee-and-expense award among all interested counsel and their agreed percentages are memorialized in a July 6, 2012 Agreement to Arbitrate the Allocation of Attorneys' Fees and Costs Awarded in the Fiber-Optic-Cable Right-of-Way Litigation ("Agreement to Arbitrate") and an arbitration award under the Agreement to Arbitrate.

(1) 85.956 percent to the 48-Firm Group;¹

(2) 8.398 percent to William T. Gotfryd;² and

(3) 1.2 percent to the Litman Group.³

Gotfryd, a member of the Litman Group, a member of the Susman Group, or a representative of the Estate of Hugh V. Smith, Jr, as defined in the Agreement to Arbitrate.

² "William T. Gotfryd" means William T. Gotfryd, Esq. and any other counsel who requests an award of the Gross Fees based on representation of a client who is also represented by William T. Gotfryd and which counsel is not a member of the Litman Group, a member of the 48-Firm Group, a member of the Susman Group, or a representative of the Estate of Hugh V. Smith, Jr, as defined in the Agreement to Arbitrate.

It is further ORDERED that the Susman Group⁴ may file a motion requesting disbursement of its 4.446-percent share of the award, but until such time as that motion is filed and granted the Susman Group's share shall remain in escrow.

It is further ORDERED that all escrow-account expenses for administering the Colorado Fiber Optic Counsel Qualified Settlement Fund that are incurred after making the distribution to the 48-Firm Group, William T. Gotfryd, and the Litman Group will be paid for out of the remaining funds held in escrow for the Susman Group.
