1 A Yes.

2 Q Have any of these investors -- strike
3 that.

4 Have any of these equity shareholders in
5 MostChoice expressed to you concern or dismay that
6 MostChoice was involved in sending thousands of false
7 insurance quotation requests to NetQuote?

8 A No. I mean, they -- you know, they have 9 been very pleased with how we've run and grown the 10 company, and they trust, you know, what we're doing
11 to run and grow the company, and, you know, I
12 explained it was a project that Mike did to gather
13 some intelligence about, you know, the depth of other
14 place's networks, and that it was a relatively 15 small -- you know, in the scheme of things, small
16 effort that didn't have much of an impact, but 17 that -- it was my sense that, you know, our
18 competitor was trumping it up and trying to use it
19 against us, and they said, yes, it's a difficult
20 situation and, you know, good luck with it, but that
21 was about the extent of it.

22 MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Levy, you're
23 going to have to leave.

24 MR. LEVY: No, I don't think so.

25 MR. WILLIAMS: Okay. Let the

1 record reflect that Mr. Levy just put up
2 his middle finger and pointed it at me.

3 Now, Mr. Levy you have to leave.

4 MR. LEVY: No, I don't think so.

5 MR. WILLIAMS: Okay. We're going
6 to call the court now. That was just
7 unacceptable. Let's get the phone.

8 MR. ISENBERG: We're off the 9 record.

10 MR. WILLIAMS: No, we're on the 11 record. We're on the record. Let's get
12 the phone and call the court. You're not 13 going to have your client giving me the 14 finger in the middle of a deposition.

15 MR. LEVY: Then stop picking
16 fights.

17 MR. ISENBERG: Don't give him the 18 finger.

19 MR. WILLIAMS: We're staying on the
20 record. Either leave or we're calling
21 the court.

22 MR. ISENBERG: Call the judge.

23 MR. WILLIAMS: Okay. We'll go off
24 the record now, and I'll get the court on 25 the phone.
