Jeff Beck (The identity of this customer is Attorneys Eyes Only)

Mark Gatch
Investors Financial Group
Sarasota, FL

This is a former Netquote customer who tried Netquote in December, 2006. In February or March the leads he received from Netquote were of poor quality, and 720-730 out of approximately 800 leads were "junk."

Matt Goldberg (The identity of this customer is Attorneys Eyes Only)

Ascencea, LLC
Clark, NJ 07066

This is a Netquote customer who reported that about half of the leads from Netquote contained erroneous phone numbers. Many of the leads contacted completed a form at or about Publisher's Clearinghouse in order to get a computer or some other gift. Reported that leads had already been contacted by 4-7 agents or companies.

Patrick Wiesner (The identity of this customer is Attorneys Eyes Only)

Former Netquote customer using the moniker or screen name timlett. Posted the following at insurance-forums.net

I used them for about 6 months and 98% of the leads were worthless. I tried them out to supplement my leads that I was receiving from NAA National Agents Alliance. Problems included bogus phone numbers, people freaking out when a real live person called them so soon, the proverbial shopper that never intends on picking a product/plan, the phone non-answerer...etc...etc...and so it goes. I was impressed with their product.
