Concise statements as to type of claim This is an action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. Section 1125(d) to enjoin defendant's cybersquatting on plaintiff's federally registered trademark through his registration of the www.videoprofessor.ca domain name.

Jurisdiction (cite statute) 28 U.S.C. Section 1331 (federal question); 28 U.S.C. Section 1338(a) (Act of Congress relating to trademarks).

Hearing: See D.C.COLO.LCivR. 7.1A

Date Motion for Temporary Restraining Order filed April 4, 2007

Estimated length of hearing Plaintiff seeks issuance of order without notice to defendant pursuant to F.R.C.P. 65(b).

Request hearing be set for ___ today ___ tomorrow X within one week

Reason why immediate action is required For the reasons stated below, plaintiff seeks issuance of the TRO prior to service of summons and complaint on defendant. (See below.)

Notice:

Has opposing party and/or attorney been notified? ___ Yes X No

If "yes", state when _____ and by what means _____

If "no", state reason Plaintiff seeks issuance of an ex parte temporary restraining order to maintain the status quo by prohibiting defendant's transfer of the domain name pending the court's determination of the domain names' lawful registrant. If defendant is not restrained, he could transfer the domain name thus thwarting plaintiff's efforts to acquire the name to which it is legally entitled.
