

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO
Magistrate Judge Boyd N. Boland

Civil Action No. 08-cv-01564-LTB-BNB

LARRY SHO VAN,

Plaintiff,

v.

ALLSTATE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Defendant.

ORDER

This matter arises on the parties' Stipulated Motion for Protective Order [Doc. # 23, filed 5/28/2009] (the "Motion"). The Motion is DENIED and the draft protective order is REJECTED. The parties are granted leave to submit a revised draft order consistent with the comments contained here.

In Gillard v. Boulder Valley School District, 196 F.R.D. 382 (D. Colo. 2000), I set out certain requirements for the issuance of a blanket protective order such as the one sought here. Among other things, I require that any information designated by a party as confidential must first be reviewed by a lawyer and that the designation as confidential must be "based on a good faith belief that [the information] is confidential or otherwise entitled to protection" under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(1)(G). Gillard, 196 F.R.D. at 386.

In addition, any request to file materials subject to the blanket protective order under seal must comply with D.C.COLO.LCivR7.2 and 7.3. Additional requirements like those proposed in ¶7 of the draft protective order are not allowed.

I also require that the protective order contain a mechanism by which a party may challenge the designation of information as confidential. The addendum to the Gillard decision is a form of protective order which contains a provision that satisfies this requirement:

A party may object to the designation of particular CONFIDENTIAL information by giving written notice to the party designating the disputed information. The written notice shall identify the information to which the objection is made. If the parties cannot resolve the objection within ten (10) business days after the time the notice is received, it shall be the obligation of the party designating the information as CONFIDENTIAL to file an appropriate motion requesting that the court determine whether the disputed information should be subject to the terms of this Protective Order. If such a motion is timely filed, the disputed information shall be treated as CONFIDENTIAL under the terms of this Protective Order until the Court rules on the motion. If the designating party fails to file such a motion within the prescribed time, the disputed information shall lose its designation as CONFIDENTIAL and shall not thereafter be treated as CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with this Protective Order. In connection with a motion filed under this provision, the party designating the information as CONFIDENTIAL shall bear the burden of establishing that good cause exists for the disputed information to be treated as CONFIDENTIAL.

Id. at 388-89.

Finally, the draft protective order should follow the general format of the addendum to the Gillard decision.

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion is DENIED.

Dated June 2, 2009.
