- (a) attorneys actively working on this case;

Whenever a deposition involves the disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL information, the deposition or portions thereof shall be designated as CONFIDENTIAL and shall be subject to the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order. Such designation shall be made on the record during the deposition whenever possible, but a party may designate portions of depositions as CONFIDENTIAL after transcription, provided written notice of the designation is promptly given to all counsel of record within thirty (30) days after receipt of the transcript.

8. A party may object to the designation of particular CONFIDENTIAL information by giving written notice to the party designating the disputed information. The written notice shall specifically identify the information to which the objection is made. If such a motion is timely filed, the disputed information shall be treated as CONFIDENTIAL under the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order until the Court rules on the motion. If the designating party fails to file such a motion within the prescribed time, the disputed information shall lose its designation as CONFIDENTIAL and shall not thereafter be treated as CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with this Stipulated Protective Order. In connection with a motion filed under this provision, the party designating the information as CONFIDENTIAL shall bear the burden of establishing that good cause exists for the disputed information to be treated as CONFIDENTIAL.

Where the parties agree to destroy CONFIDENTIAL documents, the destroying party shall confirm in writing the destruction. Each party's counsel and their insurers shall be permitted to keep one copy for its files of any work product that may contain or reference CONFIDENTIAL documents. However, such copies and any electronically stored copies of the documents which cannot be readily destroyed shall be kept in a confidential manner and the CONFIDENTIAL documents shall retain their confidential status until it is destroyed as part of the regular file retention and destruction process.

11. By agreeing to the entry of this Stipulated Protective Order, the parties adopt no position as to the authenticity or admissibility of documents produced subject to it.
