ORDER

On April 12, 2010, Mr. Gillon filed a Letter requesting an extension of thirty days to file an Amended Complaint. Mr. Gillon asserts he needs an extension of time because he has been placed in lockdown and does not have access to the prison library. He also asserts that he has other litigation in which he has a filing due date that is simultaneous with the due date in this action. The request is DENIED.

Mr. Gillon does not specify what legal materials he needs to obtain from the prison library, and the Court finds he does not need to engage in legal research to
