ORDER

This matter is before me on an email (the “email”) [Doc. #211] sent directly to my chambers on May 17, 2011, by David Mansfield, an “Interested Party” in this case. The email is an improper communication. All matters to be called to a judicial officer’s attention must be submitted through the clerk’s office for filing, with copies served on all parties (or their attorneys if they are represented).

In addition, Mr. Mansfield requests a court order. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provide that “[a] request for a court order must be made by motion.” “The rules governing captions and other matters of form in pleadings apply to motions and other papers.” Rule 7, Fed.R.Civ.P.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The email is STRICKEN;
2. Mr. Mansfield shall not send communications directly to my chambers unless otherwise instructed; and
3. All future applications to the court must be submitted in the form of a motion and in compliance with the federal rules of procedure, local rules, and this order.

Dated May 19, 2011.
