AGREED ORDER FREEZING ASSETS AND GRANTING OTHER EMERGENCY RELIEF

This matter came on before me, the undersigned United States District Judge, this 22nd day of DEC, 2009, on the Securities and Exchange Commission's Unopposed Motion to Enter Agreed Judgment of Permanent Injunction as to Defendants Triton Financial, LLC, Triton Acquisition, LP, and Kurt B. Barton and Agreed Orders Appointing Receiver and Freezing Assets and Granting Other Emergency Relief. Having considered the unopposed motion, the Commission's Complaint, Consent of Defendant Triton Financial, LLC, Consent of Triton Acquisition, LP, and Consent of Kurt B. Barton, this Court finds as follows:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and over all parties hereto, and the Commission is a proper party to bring this action seeking the relief sought in its Complaint.
2. There is good cause to believe that the Defendants have engaged, are engaged, and will continue to engage, in acts and practices that constitute and will constitute violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act") [15 U.S.C. § 77q(a)] and Section

10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") [15 U.S.C. §78j(b)] and Rule 10b-5 thereunder [17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5].

3. There is good cause to believe that investor funds and assets obtained by the Defendants from the unlawful activities described in the Commission's Complaint have been and will be misappropriated, wasted or otherwise used to the detriment of investors. Furthermore, there is good cause to believe that the Defendants do not have sufficient funds or assets to satisfy the relief that might be ordered in this action.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

I.

Defendants are restrained and enjoined from making any payment or expenditure of funds (including charges on any credit card or draws on any other credit arrangement) pending a showing to this Court that they have sufficient funds or assets to satisfy all claims arising from the violations alleged in the Complaint. Further, any bank, trust company, broker-dealer or other depository institution holding accounts for or on behalf of the Defendants shall make no transactions in securities (excepting liquidating transactions necessary as to wasting assets) and no disbursements of funds or securities (including extensions of credit, or advances on existing lines of credit), including the honor of any negotiable instrument (including specifically, any check, draft, or cashier's check) purchased by or for the Defendants, pending further order of this Court.

II.

To effectuate the provisions of Paragraph I, above, the Commission may cause a copy of this Order to be served on any bank, savings and loan, broker-dealer or other financial or depository institution either by United States mail or by facsimile, to restrain and enjoin any such institution from disbursing funds, directly or indirectly, to or on behalf of the Defendants, or any companies or persons or entities under their control.

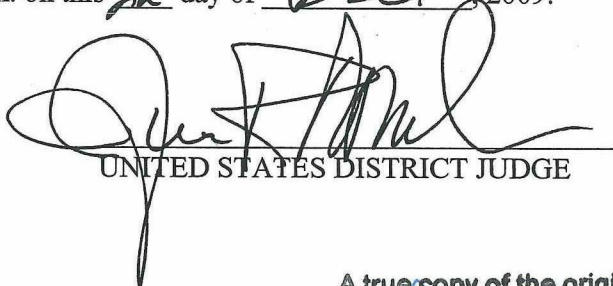

III.

Defendants shall make an interim accounting, under oath, within thirty days of the issuance of this, detailing by amount, date, method and location of transfer, payee and payor, purpose of payment or transfer of: (a) all investor monies and other benefits they received, directly and indirectly, from or as a result of the activities alleged in the Complaint or thereafter transferred; (b) all of their current assets wherever they may be located and by whomever they are being held, and their current liabilities; and (c) all accounts with any financial or brokerage institution maintained for the Defendants at any point during the period from July 1, 2008 to the present. The accounting shall be delivered to Robert Long, Securities and Exchange Commission, 801 Cherry Street, 19th Floor, Fort Worth, Texas 76102, by the deadline set forth above. Alternatively, Defendants can satisfy this provision by turning over all documents relating to the activities alleged in the Complaint and their financial and brokerage institution records to the Receiver in this matter, within ten days of the issuance of this Order.

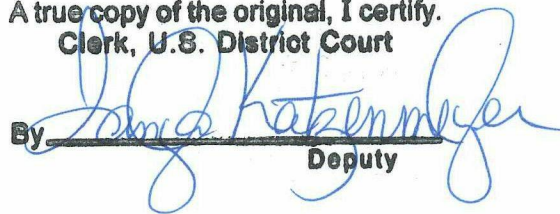

IV.

Defendants are restrained and enjoined from destroying, removing, mutilating, altering, concealing or disposing any of their books and records or any documents relating to the matters set forth in the Commission's Complaint.

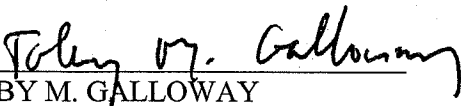

Signed at 12:03 clock a.m./p.m. on this 22nd day of DEC. 2009.
