Case Number: 2010CV2912

Division: 2

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND TO PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO CONSOLIDATE

COMES NOW Defendant Fireman's Fund Insurance Company ("FFIC"), by and through its undersigned counsel of record, and moves the Court for an extension of time up to and including January 17, 2011, to respond to Plaintiffs' Motion to Consolidate Actions.

Certification Pursuant to C.R.C.P. 121 § 1-15

The undersigned certified that he conferred with counsel for plaintiffs who indicated that plaintiffs have no objection to the relief requested.

1. Plaintiffs filed this action on December 13, 2010. FFIC was served on December 14, 2010, through service upon the Commissioner of Insurance, making FFIC's answer due on January 3, 2011.

2. Plaintiffs also moved on December 14, 2010, to consolidate this action with ProBuild Holdings, Inc. et al v. Granite State Insurance Company, et al., Boulder County District Court Case No. 2010CV378. The standard 15-day response deadline potentially makes any response to the motion due today, December 29, 2010. See, C.R.C.P. 121 § 1-15(1). However, FFIC has no record of having been served with the motion to consolidate in this action. On the other hand, counsel for FFIC received a copy of the motion on December 14, 2010, due to FFIC's prior involvement in Case No. 2010CV378.

3. Rather than attempt to determine whether service was effectuated through notice to counsel in a different case, and because of the holidays, FFIC sought and obtained an agreement by the Plaintiffs for an extension with respect to both its answer and its response to the motion to consolidate. The Plaintiffs agreed to January 17, 2011.

4. Wherefore, FFIC respectfully requests that the Court grant an extension for FFIC to file its response to the motion to consolidate up to and including January 17, 2011.

DATED: December 29, 2010.

Respectfully submitted,
COZEN O'CONNOR
