

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

Civil Action No. 11-cv-02175-MSK-MEH

TRAVIS BRICKEY,

Plaintiff,

v.

WAYNE STEPHEN WEYLER,
MATTHEW LOWELL LEWIS,
JOSEPH CRAWFORD,
ANDREW WILLIAM MEANS,
CORBEN KENT TELINDE, and MARK JOHNSON,

Defendants.

MINUTE ORDER

Entered by Michael E. Hegarty, United States Magistrate Judge, on June 8, 2012.

Pending before the Court is Defendants' Unopposed Motion for Leave to Depose Incarcerated Person [filed June 5, 2012; docket #25]. Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(a)(2)(B) requires a party to obtain leave of court to depose a person confined in prison. Defendants represent that Lori Clark is a key witness in this case, and that Ms. Clark is being held in custody at a Mesa County Criminal Justice Services facility. Accordingly, the Court grants Defendants' Motion and permits Defendants to depose Ms. Clark at the Mesa County Criminal Justice Services facility where she currently resides.
