

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

Civil Action No. 11-cv-02285-NYW

CENTER FOR LEGAL ADVOCACY, d/b/a DISABILITY LAW COLORADO,

Plaintiff,

v.

REGGIE BICHA, in his official capacity as Executive Director of the Colorado Department of Human Services; and

RONALD B. HALE, in his official capacity as Superintendent of the Colorado Mental Health Institute at Pueblo, Defendants.

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO REOPEN ACTION FOR ENFORCEMENT OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Magistrate Judge Nina Y. Wang

This matter is before the court on the Motion to Reopen Action for Enforcement of Settlement Agreement [#53, filed on November 18, 2015] pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), the Order of Reference for all purposes dated February 21, 2012 [#44], and the Reassignment dated November 19, 2015 [#58]. The court has reviewed the Parties' briefing [#57, #59], the Settlement Agreement [#53-1], the entire case file including the court's Order of Dismissal [#52], and the applicable case law. There is no dispute between the Parties that this court retains jurisdiction to enforce the Settlement Agreement. [#57 at 7]. Nevertheless, Defendants contend that this court should decline to re-open the case because they are not in violation of the Settlement Agreement or it should only be re-opened for the purposes of formal mediation. [#57]. Respectfully, Defendants' position puts the cart before the horse.

The only question that is ripe before the court on the Motion to Reopen is whether this case should be re-opened to consider Plaintiff's allegation that the Settlement Agreement has been breached. In light of Defendants' concession that errors in reporting did, in fact, occur repeatedly [#57 at 11], and Plaintiff's articulated concern regarding mentally-ill detainees, this court finds that it is appropriate for this case to be re-opened. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that:

(1) The Motion to Reopen Action for Enforcement of Settlement Agreement [#53] is GRANTED, insofar as it seeks to reopen the case to allow the court to consider whether the Settlement Agreement has been breached and whether to order enforcement; and

(2) This matter is set for a Status Conference on December 29, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. to discuss Plaintiff's request for discovery and an evidentiary hearing. On or before December 27, 2015, the Parties will meet and confer about and file a Joint Status Report addressing Plaintiff's requested discovery and a proposed scope and procedure for hearing.

DATED: December 18, 2015
