

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO
Judge Robert E. Blackburn

Civil Case No. 12-cv-00525-REB-CBS

NICOLE JOKELA,

Plaintiff,

v.

TARGET CORPORATION, and
ANTHONY DOORS,<sup>[1]</sup>

Defendants,

---

ORDER OF DISMISSAL AS TO DEFENDANT, TARGET CORPORATION, ONLY

---

Blackburn, J.

The matter is before the court on the Stipulated Motion To Dismiss Claims Against Target Corporation With Prejudice [#30],<sup>2</sup> filed September 24, 2012. After reviewing the motion and the record, I conclude that the motion should be granted and that plaintiff's claims against defendant, Target Corporation should be dismissed with prejudice.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED as follows:

1. That the Stipulated Motion To Dismiss Claims Against Target Corporation With Prejudice [#30] filed September 24, 2012, is GRANTED;

<sup>1</sup> On July 18, 2012, the court approved the parties' Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice as to Third Party Defendant Carrier Commercial Refrigeration [#27], filed July 17, 2012, and dismissed the third party complaint with prejudice. (See Order of Dismissal [#29], filed July 18, 2012.) Accordingly, the case caption has been amended to reflect only the parties remaining in this action.

<sup>2</sup> "[#30]" is an example of the convention I use to identify the docket number assigned to a specific paper by the court's electronic case filing and management system (CM/ECF). I use this convention throughout this order.

2. That plaintiff's claims against defendant, Target Corporation, are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE with each of the affected parties to pay its own attorney fees and costs; and

3. That defendant Target Corporation is DROPPED as a named party to this action, and the case caption AMENDED accordingly.

Dated September 28, 2012, at Denver, Colorado.

BY THE COURT:

Robert E. Blackburn
United States District Judge
