

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

Civil Action No. 12-cv-00708-REB-MEH

ANTHONY D. LOCKE,

Plaintiff,

v.

FEDEX FREIGHT, INC., and
JON S. JONES,

Defendants.

MINUTE ORDER

Entered by Michael E. Hegarty, United States Magistrate Judge, on March 27, 2014.

Before the Court is Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Production, Inspection and Copying of Documents and to Extend Dispositive Motion Deadline [filed November 12, 2013; docket #105]. This Court temporarily stayed briefing on the present motion pending resolution of the Court's recommendation for dismissal; however, due to the District Court's substantially heavy workload, the stay has essentially become indefinite. Therefore, in the interest of judicial economy and efficiency, the Court will deny the motion without prejudice at this time. Upon the District Court's order resolving the pending recommendation, the Plaintiff may simply file a motion seeking to "renew the motion to compel at docket #105," if appropriate and if he chooses to do so.
