

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO
Judge John L. Kane

Civil Action No. 12-cv-00995-JLK

KELLY WILLERDING,
Plaintiff,

v.

RICHARD E. STEGER and HTC EXPRESS, INC., Defendants.

ORDER CONCERNING JURY INSTRUCTIONS

Kane, J.

As explained in my Civil Pretrial and Trial Memorandum¹, I instruct the jury in full before opening arguments, as well as during and after trial. Accordingly, any Jury Instructions that the parties presently anticipate as being “[reserved]” should be submitted ahead of time. Such instructions will not, in fact, be reserved for use only during trial, but rather will be given before, during as appropriate, and after trial. Parties shall amend and supplement their Proposed Jury Instructions, Doc. 39, with any Jury Instructions presently believed to fall into a “[reserved]” category, such as limiting instructions. For an example of how this works, please see Doc. 124-1 in Etter v. Bibby, 10–CV–00557. The amended Proposed Jury Instructions are due on or by August 12, 2013.

DATED: July 9, 2013

BY THE COURT:

s/John L. Kane
John L. Kane, U.S. Senior District Judge

¹ Available at http://www.cod.uscourts.gov/Portals/0/Documents/Judges/JLK/jlk_Civil-Procedures.pdf