MINUTE ORDER¹

The matter is before the court sua sponte. On January 14, 2014, the court entered its Order Denying Motion For Temporary Restraining Order [#63]².

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED as follows:

1. That the Request by Defendants' For Leave to File Amended Response to TRO/Preliminary Injunction [#54] filed December 27, 2013, is GRANTED and the Defendants' Amended Response To Motion For Temporary Restraining Order/Preliminary Injunction [#56] is accepted for filing; and

2. That the Motion for Leave To File Surreply [#88] filed February 18, 2014, is GRANTED. The defendants may file a surreply addressing only new arguments and new evidence raised by the plaintiffs in their reply [#83]. The surreply shall be limited to eight (8) pages, excluding the certificate of mailing. The surreply may be filed on or before September 5, 2014.

Dated: August 27, 2014

² "[#63]" is an example of the convention I use to identify the docket number assigned to a specific paper by the court's case management and electronic case filing system (CM/ECF). I use this convention throughout this order.
