

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

Civil Action No. 12-cv-03166-RBJ-MEH

PATRICK COLLINS, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

JOHN DOES 1-5,

Defendants.

MINUTE ORDER

---

Entered by Michael E. Hegarty, United States Magistrate Judge, on February 6, 2013.

The “Motion to Quash or Vacate Subpoena” filed by John Doe #3 [filed February 5, 2013; docket #17] is denied without prejudice for the following reasons.

First, the motion fails to comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(a), which states in pertinent part,

Every pleading, written motion, and other paper must be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney’s name – or by a party personally if the party is unrepresented. The paper must state the signer’s address, email address, and telephone number.

From the content of the present motion, the Court infers that Defendant John Doe #3 seeks to proceed in this litigation anonymously. However, he has failed to properly seek permission from the Court to do so. See K-Beech, Inc. v. Does 1-29, 826 F. Supp. 2d 903, 905 (W.D.N.C. 2011) (noting that a party who wishes to proceed anonymously may overcome the presumption against anonymous proceedings by filing a well-reasoned motion to proceed anonymously); see also West Coast Prods., Inc. v. Does 1-5829, 275 F.R.D. 9, 12 (D.D.C. 2011) (“federal courts generally allow parties to proceed anonymously only under certain special circumstances when anonymity is necessary to protect a person from harassment, injury, ridicule or personal embarrassment”). Therefore, if Defendant John Doe #3 wishes to re-file his motion in accordance with this order and all applicable local and federal court rules, he may do so on or before February 20, 2013 and must first (or contemporaneously) file a motion to proceed anonymously in accordance with Rule 11(a).<sup>1</sup> With such filing, Defendant must provide to the Court his name, address, telephone number and email address in the form of a separate written “supplement” to the motion. If Defendant wishes to keep this supplement (containing his identifying information) confidential, he may file a motion to file the supplement under restriction pursuant to the procedure set forth in D.C. Colo. LCivR 7.2. The Court may strike any motion or other filing that deviates from the requirements of this order or from those set forth in the applicable local or federal rules.

Second, John Doe #3 failed to file a copy of the subpoena at issue with the present motion for the Court’s consideration. Therefore, the Court orders that John Doe #3 attach a copy of the challenged subpoena to any renewed motion to quash he may file.
