MINUTE ORDER

---

ENTERED BY MAGISTRATE JUDGE KRISTEN L. MIX

This matter is before the Court on Defendants' Motion for Clarification or, Alternatively, to Amend Scheduling Order [#126] (the "Motion").

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion [#126] is GRANTED. The Court clarifies as follows: the Court intended the March 15, 2014 deadline in the Scheduling Order to be the date by which all discovery, including depositions, must be completed. However, because the language in the Scheduling Order is ambiguous ("Fact discovery deadline (requests must be served by): March 15, 2014"), because it is generally more economical and efficient to take depositions after completion of written discovery, and because the parties may have misconstrued the ambiguous language, the Scheduling Order is amended as follows:

Deadline to serve written discovery requests	March 15, 2014
Fact discovery deadline	May 2, 2014
Plaintiff's expert disclosures due	May 16, 2014
Defendants' expert disclosures due	June 2, 2014
Defendants' rebuttal expert disclosures due	June 9, 2014
Plaintiff's rebuttal expert disclosures due	June 23, 2014
Expert discovery deadline	July 11, 2014
Dispositive motions deadline	July 31, 2014

No further extensions of time will be permitted absent extraordinary circumstances.
