

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

Civil Action No. 13-cv-00902-WYD-MEH

VOLTAGE PICTURES, LLC, a California limited liability company,

Plaintiff,

v.

DOES 1-11,

Defendants.

MINUTE ORDER

Entered by Michael E. Hegarty, United States Magistrate Judge, on May 20, 2013.

Before the Court is Defendant John Doe 1's Motion to Quash Plaintiff's Subpoena and Dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint for Lack of Standing [filed May 20, 2013; docket #15].

Due to its varied requests for relief, adjudication of the single motion will likely require different standards of review and legal analyses of both dispositive and non-dispositive issues. In the interests of judicial efficiency and the proper management of its docket, the Court denies the motion without prejudice and instructs the Defendant to file his/her requests for relief each in separate motions, as applicable. See D.C. Colo. LCivR 7.1C ("A motion shall be made in a separate paper.")

Further, the Court notes that Defendant failed to file with his motion to quash a copy of the challenged subpoena. Therefore, if Defendant chooses to re-file his motion to quash, he is instructed to file a copy of the challenged subpoena with the motion.
