Parties<sup>1</sup> are on notice that based upon the nature of the claims, the court has determined that this case is appropriate for expeditious disposition. As such, parties should expect to proceed to trial within 10 months from the filing of the complaint and that all pretrial deadlines will be set in anticipation of that trial date. Therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

<sup>1</sup>The term “party” as used in this Order means counsel for any party represented by a lawyer, and any pro se party not represented by a lawyer.

A copy of instructions for the preparation of a scheduling order and a form scheduling order can be downloaded from the “Forms” section on the Court’s website under the “Standardized Order Forms” heading.

In accordance with D.C. COLO. ECF. PROC. 5.12, the parties shall file their proposed scheduling order and also email an editable version to Shaffer\_Chambers@cod.uscourts.gov no later than:

Seven (7) days prior to the
conference

(2) In preparation for the scheduling/planning conference, the parties are directed to confer in accordance with FED.R.CIV.P. 26(f), no later than:

Twenty-one (21) days prior to the
conference

During the Rule 26(f) meeting, the parties shall discuss the following:

- (a) Nature and basis of their claims and defenses. In particular, plaintiff’s counsel should come prepared to discuss the factual basis for any claims of actual damage and defendant’s counsel should be prepared to disclose the name and address of defendant’s telephone service provider.
- (b) Possibilities for a prompt settlement or resolution of the case, or any and all obstacles to a prompt settlement, and
- (c) Develop a proposed scheduling order that reflects the following deadlines:
  - (i) Discovery deadline not more than 3 months after the Scheduling Conference;
  - (ii) Dispositive motion deadline not more than 4 months from the Scheduling Conference;
  - (iii) Final Pretrial Conference not more than 5 months after the Scheduling Conference; and
  - (iv) Trial date not more than 7 months after the Scheduling Conference.

The parties should also discuss the possibility of informal discovery, such as conducting joint interviews with potential witnesses, joint meetings with clients, depositions via telephone, or exchanging documents outside of formal discovery.

In those cases in which: (i) the parties’ substantive allegations involve extensive computer-generated records; (ii) a substantial amount of disclosure or discovery will involve information or records in electronic form (i.e., e-mail, word processing, databases); (iii) expert witnesses will develop testimony based in large part on computer data and/or modeling; or (iv) any party plans to present a substantial amount of evidence in digital form at trial, the parties shall confer regarding steps they can take to preserve computer records and data, facilitate computer-based discovery and who will pay costs, resolve privilege issues, limit discovery costs and delay, and avoid discovery disputes relating to electronic discovery. The parties shall be prepared to discuss these issues, as appropriate, in the proposed Scheduling Order and at the scheduling and planning conference.

These are the minimum requirements for the Rule 26(f) meeting. The parties are encouraged to have a comprehensive discussion and are required to approach the meeting cooperatively and in good faith. The parties are reminded that the purpose of the Rule 26(f) meeting is to expedite the disposition of the action, discourage wasteful pretrial activities, and improve the quality of any eventual trial through more thorough preparation. The discussion of claims and defenses shall be a substantive, meaningful discussion.

Parties should be aware that the court intends to set pretrial deadlines that reflect an expedited approach. To that end parties are reminded that they may begin discovery immediately after then Rule 26(f) meeting (see FED.R.CIV.P. 26). The court does not anticipate extending pretrial proceedings because counsel failed to take advantage of the opportunities afforded by FED.R.CIV.P. 26(d).

(3) The parties shall comply with the mandatory disclosure requirements of FED.R.CIV.P. 26(a)(1) no later than:

Seven (7) days prior to the
conference

Counsel and parties are reminded that mandatory disclosure requirements encompass computer-based evidence which may be used to support claims or defenses. Mandatory disclosures must be supplemented by the parties consistent with the requirements of FED.R.CIV.P. 26(e). Mandatory disclosures and supplementation are not to be filed with the Clerk of the Court. Consistent with the court's discretion under FED.R.CIV.P. 26(a)(1), the parties are required to disclose the existence of any and all tape or electronic recordings they have that would be discoverable under FED.R.CIV.P. 26(b)(1).

(4) All parties are expected to be familiar with the United States District Court for the District of Colorado Local Rules of Practice (D.C.COLOL.CIVR.). Copies are available from Office of the Clerk, United States District Court for the District of Colorado, or through the District Court's web site: www.cod.uscourts.gov.

All out-of-state counsel shall comply with D.C.COLOL.CIVR. 83.3 prior to the Scheduling/Planning Conference.

DATED at Denver, Colorado, on July 24, 2013.
