

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO
Judge Robert E. Blackburn

Civil Action No. 13-cv-01735-REB

PHILIP W. WYERS, individually,

Plaintiff,

v.

CEQUENT PERFORMANCE PRODUCTS, INC.,

Defendant.

ORDER

Blackburn, J.

The matter is before me on Cequent's Motion To Stay Discovery Pending Resolution of its Rule 12(b)(1) Motion in a Related Case [#11]¹ filed August 29, 2013. I deny the motion as moot.

In the related case, 12-cv-02640-REB, the court entered its Order Granting Motion To Amend Caption & Denying Motion To Dismiss [#60] on September 17, 2013. In that order Cequent's Motion To Dismiss Under Rule 12(b)(1) [#23] filed January 29, 2013, was denied. Thus, the subject motion to dismiss in the related case has been resolved. Accordingly, the pendency of that motion may not serve as a basis to stay discovery in this case.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that Cequent's Motion To Stay Discovery

¹ “[#11]” is an example of the convention I use to identify the docket number assigned to a specific paper by the court's electronic case filing and management system (CM/ECF). I use this convention throughout this order.

Pending Resolution of its Rule 12(b)(1) Motion in a Related Case [#11] filed August 29, 2013, is DENIED as moot.

Dated September 23, 2013, at Denver, Colorado.

BY THE COURT:

Robert E. Blackburn
United States District Judge
