DOC. 1

Before this Court is the Complaint by the United States of America, on behalf of the United States Small Business Administration ("SBA"), for the appointment of the SBA as Receiver for RCV SBIC, L.P. ("RCV"). The Court, being fully advised as to the merits, and based upon the consent of the parties, believes this relief should be granted.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

- 1. Pursuant to the provisions of 15 U.S.C. § 687c, this Court shall take exclusive jurisdiction of RCV, and all of its assets, wherever located, and the United States Small Business Administration ("SBA"), is hereby appointed receiver ("the Receiver") of RCV to serve without bond until further order of this Court. The Receiver is appointed for the purpose of administering, marshalling and, if necessary, liquidating all of RCV's assets to satisfy the claims of creditors therefrom in the order of priority as determined by this Court.
- 2. The Receiver shall have all powers, authorities, rights and privileges heretofore possessed by the general partners, managers, officers, and directors of RCV under applicable state and federal law and by the Certificate of Limited Partnership and Partnership Agreement of said partnership, in addition to all powers and authority conferred upon the Receiver by the provisions of 15 U.S.C. § 687c and 28 U.S.C. § 754. The general partners, managers, directors, officers, employees and agents of RCV are hereby dismissed. Such persons shall have no authority with respect to RCV's operations or assets, except as may hereafter be expressly granted by the Receiver. The Receiver shall assume and control the operation of RCV and shall pursue and preserve all of its claims.

- 3. The past and/or present officers, directors, agents, managers, general partners, accountants, attorneys and employees of RCV, as well as all those acting in their place, are hereby ordered and directed to turn over to the Receiver forthwith all books, records, documents, accounts and all other instruments and papers of said partnership and all other assets and property of the partnership, whether real or personal. RCV shall furnish a written statement within ten (10) days after the entry of this Order, listing the identity, location and estimated value of all assets of RCV, as well as the names, addresses and amounts of claims of all known creditors of RCV. All persons having control, custody or possession of any assets or property of RCV, including its former General Partner, are hereby directed to turn such property over to the Receiver.
- 4. The Receiver shall promptly give notice of its appointment to all known officers, directors, agents, managers, general partners, employees, limited partners, creditors, debtors and agents of RCV. All persons and entities owing any obligations or debts to RCV shall, until further order of this Court, pay all such obligations in accordance with the terms thereof to the Receiver, and receipt for such payments by the Receiver shall have the same force and effect as if RCV had received such payments.

5. The Receiver is hereby authorized to open such Receiver's bank accounts, at banking or other financial institutions, to extend credit on behalf of RCV, to utilize SBA personnel, and to employ such other personnel as necessary (including the former managers of RCV at the Receiver's sole discretion) to effectuate the operation of the receivership including, but not limited to, attorneys and accountants, and is further authorized to expend receivership funds to compensate such personnel in such amounts and upon such terms as the Receiver shall deem reasonable in light of the usual fees and billing practices and procedures of such personnel. The Receiver is not required to obtain Court approval prior to the disbursement of receivership funds for payments to personnel employed by the Receiver or payments for expenses incidental to administration of the Receivership. In addition, the Receiver is authorized to reimburse the SBA or its employees for travel expenses incurred by SBA personnel in the establishment and administration of the receivership. The Receiver may, without further order of this Court, transfer, compromise, or otherwise dispose of any claim or asset of RCV, other than real estate.

- 6. In accordance with the provisions of this Order and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and if so requested by the Receiver, RCV's past and/or present officers, directors, agents, managers, general partners, limited partners, employees, and other appropriate persons (including, without limitation, the defendant's portfolio of small business concerns and of banks or other financial institutions doing business with defendant and/or defendant's portfolio of small business concerns) shall answer or provide answers, to all questions put to them by the Receiver regarding the business of RCV, or any other matter relevant to the operation or administration of the RCV receivership or the collection of funds due to RCV. In the event that the Receiver deems it necessary to require the appearance of any aforementioned persons, the production of documents, information, or any other form of discovery concerning the assets or property of RCV or any other matter relevant to the operation or administration of the Receivership or the collection of funds due to RCV, the Receiver shall provide notice of such to such persons in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
- 7. The parties or prospective parties to any and all civil legal proceedings (excluding the instant receivership proceeding), wherever located including, but not limited to arbitration proceedings, bankruptcy or foreclosure actions, default proceedings, or any other proceedings involving (i) RCV, (ii) any assets of RCV, (iii) the Receiver for RCV or (iv) RCV's present or past officers, directors, managers, or general partners (including the managers or members of such general partner) to the extent said civil legal proceedings involve any action taken by them while acting in their official capacity with RCV, are enjoined from taking any action, including discovery, commencing or continuing any legal proceeding of any nature without further order of this Court.

8. All civil legal proceedings (excluding the instant receivership proceeding) wherever located, including arbitration proceedings, foreclosure activities, bankruptcy actions, or default proceedings, but excluding the instant proceeding, involving (i) RCV, (ii) any of assets of RCV, (iii) the Receiver for RCV or (iv) RCV's present or past officers, directors, managers, or general partners (including the managers or members of such general partner) to the extent said civil legal proceedings involve any action taken in their official capacity for RCV are stayed in their entirety, and all Courts having any jurisdiction thereof are enjoined from taking or permitting any action in such proceedings until further Order of this Court.

- 9. As to a cause of action accrued or accruing in favor of RCV against a third person or party, any applicable statute of limitation is tolled to the extent allowed by applicable law during the period in which this injunction against commencement of legal proceedings is in effect as to that cause of action.
- 10. RCV and its past and/or present directors, officers, managers, general partners, agents, employees and other persons acting in concert or participation therewith be, and they hereby are, enjoined from either directly or indirectly taking any actions or causing any such action to be taken which would dissipate the assets and property of RCV to the detriment of the Receiver appointed in this cause, including but not limited to destruction of corporate or partnership records, or which would violate the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended, (the "SBIA"), 15 U.S.C. Section 661 et seq., or the regulations promulgated thereunder, (the "Regulations"), 13 C.F.R. § 107.1 et seq.
- 11. The Receiver is authorized to borrow on behalf of RCV, from the SBA, up to $1,000,000, and is authorized to cause RCV to issue Receiver's Certificates of Indebtedness in the principal amounts of the sums borrowed, which certificates will bear interest at or about 10 percent per annum and will have a maturity date no later than 18 months after the date of
