Mr. Padilla,

Magistrate Wang's chamber is available to take a call from us this morning. Please let me know what would be convenient.

With respect to the rebuttal to Dr. Mechanic, I have located an expert familiar with pseudobulbar affect disorder, but he cannot schedule an examination until March 25, at the earliest. I have asked him to call if an earlier date becomes available. As such, I will request an enlargement of time for the rebuttal. Please advise whether you oppose the request.

Peter

Mr. Padilla,

I will check to see if Magistrate Wang is available this morning, though I expect that with the holiday her chambers may be closed. If so, I will try to call her tomorrow morning. Are you available at 9:30 on Tuesday for a conference call with Magistrate Wang?
