

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO
Judge Robert E. Blackburn

Civil Action No. 15-cv-00472-REB

JAHILIL J. HOWARD,

Plaintiff,

v.

CAROLYN W. COLVIN, Acting Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

ORDER MAKING ABSOLUTE ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Blackburn, J.

This matter is before me sua sponte. On November 25, 2015, I entered an Order To Show Cause [#21]¹ directing plaintiff to show cause on or before December 9, 2015, why this matter should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. Plaintiff failed to file a timely response to that order or an extension of time to file such a response. Accordingly, the show cause order will be made absolute.²

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that my Order To Show Cause [#21], filed November 25, 2015, is made absolute.

Dated December 11, 2015, at Denver, Colorado.

BY THE COURT:

Robert E. Blackburn
United States District Judge

¹ “[#21]” is an example of the convention I use to identify the docket number assigned to a specific paper by the court’s case management and electronic case filing system (CM/ECF). I use this convention throughout this order.

² This case was administratively closed pending plaintiff’s response to the show cause order. (See Order To Show Cause ¶ 2 at 2.)
