Civil Action No. 15-cv-02302-GPG

(The above civil action number must appear on all future papers sent to the court in this action. Failure to include this number may result in a delay in the consideration of your claims.)

ERIC FLORES,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY GENERAL, and FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, and Defendants.

ORDER TO CURE DEFICIENCIES

On October 16, 2015, Mr. Flores submitted pro se a sixty-four page “Petition to Challenge the Constitutionality of the First Amendment” (ECF 1), an Application to Proceed in District Court Without Prepaying Fees or Costs (Short Form) (ECF 3), a thirty-one page “Motion to Transfer Multidistrict Litigation to the District of Columbia Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. & 1407 For Coordinated and Consolidated Pretrial Proceedings By Judicial Panel for Multidistrict Litigation” (ECF 4), a “Judicial Notice of Leave of Courts Previous Order of Any Filing Restriction Against the Petitioner to File Petition that is Seeking Relief from Imminent Danger such as Death in the Public Interest of Health and Safety” (ECF 5), and a Letter (ECF No. 6).

In his Motion to Transfer, Mr. Flores states that he “has filed over fifty causes of actions civil cause of actions entitled ‘Petition to Challenge the Constitutionality of First Amendment’ which were instituted in over fifty United States District Courts throughout the United States of America.” (ECF 4). A PACER search indicates that Mr. Flores is no stranger to the federal court system, having filed over 270 cases in federal courts across the nation. Mr. Flores is warned that this Court does not tolerate the abuse of the federal court system and any attempt by Mr. Flores to relitigate the same issues that were addressed previously or are currently pending in other federal courts will result in filing restrictions.

As part of the Court’s review pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCivR 8.1(a), the Court has determined that the documents filed are deficient as described in this Order. Mr. Flores will be directed to cure the following if he wishes to pursue any claims in this Court in this action.
