Michael,

As discussed, here is the email that Smith sent to me yesterday evening, and my contact info below my signature line. Please let us know if UTC is willing to do a stipulation for the stay, which is procedurally easier and quicker than an unopposed motion. As I mentioned, if UTC is willing to do a stipulation, we will send you a proposed draft.

If not, please confirm that UTC will not oppose the motion to stay provided it is filed by tomorrow, as Smith has indicated in his below email. I ask you to confirm only because you are listed as counsel of record in the D. Conn. action.

Regards,
Pete

Pete:

I received your message regarding UTC's position on your proposed motion to stay the Connecticut action. UTC will not oppose that motion provided it is filed within the appropriate statutory period for obtaining a mandatory stay. We note that the 30 day period provided for in 28 USC § 1659, by our count, ends this Thursday.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call.

Regards,

Smith
