

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF CONNECTICUT

STEPHEN L. GOINS,
Plaintiff,

v.

PRISONER
CASE NO. 3:11-cv-858 (AWT)

BRIAN K. MURPHY, et al.,
Defendants.

INITIAL REVIEW ORDER

The plaintiff, currently incarcerated at Northern Correctional Institution in Somers, Connecticut, has filed a complaint pro se under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. He sues Commissioner of Correction Brian K. Murphy, District Administrator Michael Lajoie, Warden Angel Quiros and Deputy Warden Lauren Powers.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b), the court must review prisoner civil complaints against governmental actors and "dismiss ... any portion of [a] complaint [that] is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted," or that "seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief." Id. Rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires that a complaint contain "a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2). Although detailed allegations are not required, "a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face. A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged.” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, ___ U.S. ___, 129 S. Ct. 1937, 1949 (2009) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted). A complaint that includes only “‘labels and conclusions,’ ‘a formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action’ or ‘naked assertion[s]’ devoid of ‘further factual enhancement,’ ” does not meet the facial plausibility standard. Id. (quoting Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555, 557 (2007)). Although courts still have an obligation to liberally construe a pro se complaint, see Harris v. Mills, 572 F.3d 66, 72 (2d Cir. 2009), the complaint must include sufficient factual allegations to meet the standard of facial plausibility.

The plaintiff alleges that the Department of Correction designated him as a Security Risk Group Safety Threat Member and that he was required to participate in a three-phase program at Northern. On or about July 15, 2010, he began phase one of the program and was permitted one hour out of his cell to exercise. During the other twenty-three hours, he was confined to his cell.

In October 2009, Commissioner Brian Murphy authorized a new policy requiring inmates in the phase program at Northern to be handcuffed behind their backs during recreation. The plaintiff claims that he has been forced to exercise with his hands cuffed behind his back from July 15, 2010 to February 16, 2011. The plaintiff alleges that he has been unable to engage in meaningful exercise with his hands behind his back and has suffered neck and shoulder pain and cuts and abrasions on his wrists.

The plaintiff seeks monetary damages. To the extent that plaintiff sues the defendants in their official capacities, the claims for money damages are barred by the Eleventh Amendment. See Kentucky v. Graham, 473 U.S. 159 (1985) (Eleventh Amendment, which protects the state from suits for monetary relief, also protects state officials sued for damages in their official capacity); Quern v. Jordan, 440 U.S. 332, 342 (1979) (Section 1983 does not override a state's Eleventh Amendment immunity). The claims for money damages against the defendants in their official capacities are dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b)(2).

After reviewing the complaint, the court concludes that the case should proceed at this time as to the claims against all defendants in their individual capacities.

ORDERS

The court enters the following orders:

Dated this 10th day of November 2011, at Hartford, Connecticut.
