ORDER FOR PREJUDGMENT REMEDY

WHEREAS, the Plaintiff Colgan Financial Group (“CFG”) in the above entitled action has made application pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 64, Local Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 4(c) and Conn. Gen. Stat. § 52-278a, et seq., for a prejudgment remedy to attach the assets of Defendant Jay Bloom and the assets of Defendant Matthew Farkas, to garnish property or obligations due from third parties known to the Plaintiff or as may be hereafter identified in such Defendants’ response to the Plaintiff’s Motion to Disclose Assets, and to compel each such Defendant to bring sufficient out-of-state assets within Connecticut and file with the Clerk of the Court for preservation pending the final outcome of this action, in order to secure the sum of $750,000; and

WHEREAS, after due hearing at which the parties appeared and were fully heard, it is found, upon consideration of the facts before this Court, and the Defendant having disavowed that it has any defenses, claims of exemption and claims of adequate insurance, nor any plausible counterclaims or set-offs, that the Plaintiff has shown probable cause that such a judgment will be rendered in the matter in the Plaintiff's favor in the amount of the prejudgment remedy sought;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED that a prejudgment remedy against Defendant Jay Bloom and Defendant Matthew Farkas, jointly and severally, be issued to secure the sum of $750,000 by:

1. Attaching the assets of each of Jay Bloom and Matthew Farkas and garnishing property or obligations due from third parties as known to the Plaintiff or as may be hereafter be identified, including in Defendants' response to the Motion to Disclose Assets, to secure the sum of $750,000;

2. Directing Defendant Jay Bloom to deliver to the Clerk of the Court all assets wherever located necessary to secure the sum of $750,000 for preservation pending the final outcome of this action; and

3. Directing Defendant Matthew Farkas to deliver to the Clerk of the Court all assets wherever located necessary to secure the sum of $750,000 for preservation pending the final outcome of this action.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
